Only Food Enough For One-Third In Klondike.

A MINER BRINGS OVER $60,000.

Chances of Getting Relief to Dawson City Very Poor—Other Persons Predict Great Suffering—Parties on the Trail Wanting to Turn Back.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 12.—The City of Topeka has arrived from Alaska. Harry Romaine, who sold a claim on the Hunter creek for $60,000, came in the steamer. He says there are 8,000 people in the Klondike and only food enough for one-third of them.

He says there is no hope of relief coming up the river, as the water is very low. He says there is no chance of taking relief over the Dalton trail, and the only way to get in this winter is on snow over the Dyea trail and down the river on the ice. One hundred and three head of cattle got in over the Dalton trail, but other cattle will never reach Dawson, the trail being covered with snow. Romaine met a number of boats with men who got over the Skaguay and Dyea trails, but they had light outfits, which accounts for their success.

Several parties who have just arrived at Skaguay from the Klondike repeat the stories of scarcity of provisions and possible hunger and starvation with many there this winter.

James Clark and C. A. Brown, having left Dawson City Sept. 6, poled up the river to 15 miles above Pelli river, and there bought a horse and came in over the supposed Dalton trail, making the trip in 26 days. They passed Thorp's party on the summit with cattle. Most of the party was discouraged and wanting to turn back.

CENTRAL AMERICAN WAR LIKELY.

Costa Rica and Nicaragua Involved In an Ugly Dispute.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Oct. 12.—The revolution has been suppressed. It has been a weak effort thus far by some of the ablest men in Nicaragua. They had no arms, and the people who were disposed generally to rally to the leaders learning this soon hid away in the woods. President Zelaya is taking strong measures to suppress forever the spirit of opposition to his rule. He is bringing suspected persons in large numbers in chains from their houses to the penitentiary in Managua without trial, and is imposing very heavy fines on them and on the absent supposed sympathizers with the revolution.

The danger of a continuance of the war is in the fact that Zelaya has imprisoned and treated with much indignity Senor Beche, consul at Managua for Costa Rica, a warm personal friend of President Inglesias of Costa Rica. The consul was arrested on suspicion of being an active participator in the revolution. It is quite probable that the diet will recall Senor Beche's exequatur and then probably he will be sent out of Nicaragua without trial. But it appears that Costa Rica has declared a state of war and is concentrating her forces to resent the alleged insult.

CONDEMNED BY JUDGES.

So-Called Government of Injunction A tacked In Colorado Higher Court.

DENVER, Oct. 12.—Judge Wilson of the court of appeals, with Judges Thompson and Bissell concurring, handed down an opinion in which he makes a vigorous attack on "government by injunction," in the case of H. Schradskie vs. the Appel Clothing company, wherein the plaintiff was given a perpetual injunction by the lower court restraining the defendant from advertising a certain stock of goods as bankrupt stocks, which was reversed.

"We cannot approve a practice," said Judge Wilson, "nor subscribe to a doctrine which permits the exercise by the courts of the extraordinary power of injunctive relief for every wrong or infringement upon the rights of another."

"Such a course of procedure, if carried to its ultimate natural conclusion, would tend to entirely subvert the fundamental principles upon which our system of law is founded."

THROWN FROM A TRESTLE.

A Handcar Wrecked and Two Men Killed—Others Injured.

NEWCOMERTOWN, Oct. 12.—At Oldham's station, on the Cleveland and Marietta railway, about 20 miles south of here, the section crews of Samuel Gary and Robert Price, nine men in all, were on a handcar crossing a trestle about 45 feet high when a crowbar fell in front of the wheels, derailing the car and throwing it and six men to the ground below. The men who went down with the car, Gadd, Price, Wilson, Brades, Whitacre and Geary, were all terribly injured.

Whitacre and Gadd soon after the accident died. Three of the men, Barnett, Dawson and Shivers, clung to the trestle and were saved. Geary had a leg mangled. Brades was badly hurt about the head and body. Price was badly bruised and Wilson was cut about the head. The dead and injured were taken to Cambridge. The injured men will probably recover.

Railroad Organizations Likely to Unite. A Conference Today.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—P. M. Arthur, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, has gone to Peoria, Ill., to attend a great conference of railroad men today. At this meeting there will be present representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Trainmen, Telegraphers' and Conductors' organizations. The object of the conference is the consolidation of these organizations. If this is decided upon, the new organization will have 100,000 men and will extend over the United States, Canada and Mexico.

There is no opposition on the part of the railroad companies. Chief Arthur, who is understood to be strongly in favor of consolidation, said in an interview, that he considered that outcome to be far from improbable.

A SUIT AGAINST GIBSON.

A Pittsburger Says He Paid Him For Stock He Didn't Get.

AKRON, Oct. 12.—The first suit to be entered against Emmet C. Gibson, the vice president of the Akron Street Railway and Illuminating company, now under arrest in New York city, has been begun by W. M. Beach of Pittsburg.

He alleges that in July, 1896, he gave Gibson $700, for which he was to receive 100 shares of Pittsburg Consolidated Traction company stock; that last November he gave him $850 more for a like amount of stocks, but that none of the stock has been delivered. He wants $1,550.

Old Miser Found Dead.

WOOSTER, Oct. 12.—Daniel Thomas, aged 76 years, has been found dead in his abode on a farm near Jefferson. He was unmarried and lived alone. A search of the house resulted in the finding of a large sum in silver and gold, which he had secreted in many places. Papers found with some of the gold showed that he had received it for wheat at Massillon 50 years ago. He was the victim of burglars many years ago, and since then kept a light burning in his room. He lived on the farm where he died for 70 years.

Coxey's Daughter Very Sick.

MASHILLON, O. Oct. 12.—Carl Browne telegraphed from Dayton that Mrs. Browne, formerly Miss Mamie Coxey, is dangerously ill, and asks her parents to come at once. General Coxey has already left for Dayton.

THOMSON ON A TOUR.

The Pennsylvania President and Party Inspecting the System.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 12.—President Frank Thomson of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, Vice Presidents Green and Pugh and several of the directors and other executive officers of the company have arrived here on the annual tour of inspection of the property of the company's vast system. The party, which is traveling in a special train of five handsome Pullman and private cars, came over the main line to Harrisburg and the Northern Central and the Philadelphia and Erie divisions via Williamsport to this city. From Erie the party will go to Cleveland over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern road. Tomorrow the Lake Shore road will again be taken for Chicago, stops being made at Toledo and Mansfield. Thursday will be spent in Chicago, and in the evening the special train will leave for St. Joseph.

Thence the party will go to Terre Haute and on Saturday morning they will leave Terre Haute for St. Louis, reaching that city on Saturday afternoon. On Sunday evening the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road will be taken for Keokuk. On Monday, the 13th inst., the party will start on the return trip and visits will be paid to Indianapolis, Columbus and other cities, Pittsburg being reached on Wednesday evening. On Thursday Altoona will be visited, and the return thence to Philadelphia on Friday will be made made by way of Lewistown Junction, Selinsgrove Junction and the Schuylkill valley divisions via Pottsville and Reading. The trip will cover 3,163 miles.

Anthracite Miners Organized.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 12.—General Organizer Fahey of the United Mine Workers says: "I have now organized all the miners in the Hazleton district, and have received requests to form branches of the United Mine workers in Sullivan county, Schuylkill county, the Panther Creek valley, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. After I am through with the work here I will go either to the Panther Creek valley or to Wilkesbarre."

Big Order For Steel Rails.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has purchased 40,000 tons of steel rails at $19 per ton for 30-foot rails and $20 for 60-foot rails. The contracts were awarded to the Pennsylvania Steel company, the Cambria Iron company and the Carnegie Steel company. All the rails are to be delivered before Jan. 1, 1898.

THE CUBAN GIRL SAFE

Her Rescuer Also In No Danger From Spain.

SHE WILL NOT BE SURRENDERED.

State Department Officials Say It Would Be Contrary to Treaty and Policy—Ex-Minister Taylor Says Spain Is Probably Glad to Get Rid of the Prisoner.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Consul General Fitzhugh Lee is here advising with officials as to the Cuban situation. It is understood that the state department is going over with General Lee and Mr. Hannis Taylor, ex-minister to Spain, the effect of the recent cabinet changes, the result of General Weyler's withdrawal and his succession by General Blanco and other new phases developed by the accession of Sagasta. The escape of Miss Cisneros from an Havana prison through the efforts of a representative of the New York Journal has been talked over also, the prevailing view being it will not lead to an international complication. General Lee said that he did not think any serious question would arise over the incident. Ex-Minister Taylor, when asked if international complications were likely to arise, answered: "I think not, and the probable result will be that Sagasta will give a royal decoration to those who have been good enough to rid Spain of this troublesome subject."

Mr. Taylor will not discuss the present situation at Madrid. He is engaged, however, in writing a review of the political, economic and diplomatic phases of the Cuban problem, with his own views drawn from experience at Madrid and refuses to make any comment in advance of his carefully prepared review of the case.

The talks of administration officials with Mr. Taylor and General Lee has given an accurate view of the situation both at Havana and Madrid, resulting from the change of Spanish cabinet and policy. There is good reason to believe that the view communicated to the state department is the accession of Sagasta means a Fabian policy of delay not only for the present, but for many weeks to come, and that no definite policy for Cuba will be announced for some time. As evidence of this, it is pointed out that General Blanco, the new captain general of Cuba, will not leave for his post before the 15th inst. Officials believe his departure is more likely to be deferred until the 20th. The trip from Barcelona to Havana will take about 11 days, so that the new captain general will not reach Havana before the early part of next month.

Thus, it is said, will permit all pending Cuban questions to be held in suspense, at least until the new official reaches his post. After that, it is anticipated the Spanish cabinet will desire that General Blanco be given time to familiarize himself with the situation and his duties and to mature the policy he is to apply to the island. The execution of that policy, an allowance of time for its fair trial, etc., according to those in a position to accurately judge, the situation will lead to protracted delays on those subjects to which the United States recently has invited the attention of Spain.

State department officials make ligh

of the prospect of any international trouble following the escape of Miss Cisneros. They say that presuming that the girl and her rescuer have reached the United States they cannot be surrendered, even if claimed by the Spanish authorities. The case is covered by two principles of law that are never deviated from, according to the state department people. As far as concerns Miss Cisneros, she, being a political refugee, cannot under our organic law be surrendered, and there is no clause in the extradition treaty that would serve as a basis for a claim for her surrender.

The circumstances under which she may have reached the United States cannot affect the force of this doctrine. As for The Journal's agent who secured the escape of the girl, his case is expressly covered in the following article of the extradition treaty between Spain and the United States, concluded in 1877:

"Article VIII. Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this convention."

The treaty was amended in 1882, but this particular Article VII was not touched, and remains in full force. Moreover, it has been the general policy of the United States to refuse to deliver up its own citizens to a foreign state, even when they were accused of crime in such state.

At the last session of congress President Cleveland sent to the senate the draft of two treaties he had negotiated and submitted for its approval. These were the extradition treaties with the Argentine confederation and with the Orange Free state. In such case an article was inserted permitting the surrender of the citizen of a state to another state upon charging of a crime. The senate cut them out and Cleveland stopped negotiations.

A VIGOROUS POLICY.

General Blanco Says He Proposes to End the War In Cuba Speedily.

MADRID, Oct. 12.—General Ramon Blanco, the new captain general of Cuba, announces that he will act with great energy against the insurgents and will employ all political means to restore equality of treatment in the various sections of the community. The captain general adds that he has the greatest desire to end the horrors of war and to establish peace by the system which he adopted in 1879.

The inhabitants of Palma, the birthplace of General Weyler, are preparing to give him an ovation on his return from Cuba.

Japan and the Seal Conference.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—An official telegram received here from Yokohama says that Japan accepted the invitation to send a representative to the sealing conference soon to be held in Washington, on the understanding that the whole sealing question is to be discussed and not simply the questions which are covered by the Paris award, Japan having no interest in the Pribyloff Islands.

Waring Will Consider It.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Commissioner Waring has been officially notified of his nomination for comptroller on the Henry George ticket. He said he would think over the matter a day or two before giving his answer.

Causing Spread of the Yellow Fever at New Orleans.

IGNORING HEALTH BOARD RULES.

They Chafe Under Quarantine Restrictions—Will Not Report Cases Promptly. The Situation Very Bad—Other Places Report Deaths and New Patients.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12.—From the returns there is little hope in the yellow fever situation. The board of health is daily demonstrating that, with a fair show, it is possible for modern science to restrict and stamp out the disease. But the people who must suffer from a strict application of scientific methods rebel, the result being that the pathway of the board of health is beset with difficulties. If there was strict compliance with the health laws; if prompt report was made of cases, the fever germ would quickly be wiped out. But it begins to look now as if from 30 to 40 cases and from 4 to 6 deaths would be daily reported until jack frost puts in an appearance.

As on nearly every day since the fever first appeared here, about 50 per cent of the fatalities was traceable to neglect and a disposition to hide cases until it was too late to do anything to save life. The case of Robert Hite was reported. He had been ill for some time. People in the vicinity of where he lived knew he was ill, yet no report was made to the authorities, and the announcement of the Hite case was almost contemporaneous with his death.

The official bulletin of the board of health showed four deaths and 35 new cases.

MOBILE, Oct. 12.—The record showed but five new cases, and no deaths.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 12.—The report from Nitta Yuma is to the effect that there are no new cases there.

At Edwards there have been reported five new cases, one white and four colored. One has black vomit and two deaths.

GALVESTON, Oct. 12.—There are three new cases of yellow fever here.

There are four cases of fever at Houston.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12.—The city council has passed a resolution throwing open the doors of San Antonio to yellow fever refugees from Galveston and other coast cities and invited citizens of those cities to come here during the present yellow fever at their homes. During the past 50 years no yellow fever has developed here, notwithstanding many refugees have come here from infected points and died with the fever.

Yellow Fever at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—Emil Grann, a fireman on the Norwegian steamer Somerhill, which arrived here on Saturday last, has developed a mild case of yellow fever, contracted in Santiago de Cuba. He has been placed in the hospital at quarantine, and the ship will be thoroughly fumigated.

NO TRIAL TODAY.

The Hayes Case Is Delayed by Salem Parties.

LISBON, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—The claim of Miss Nettie Fawcett for $10,000 from Salem is being contested in court, and will not go to the jury before evening. Miss Fawcett was permanently injured, and in court is compelled to lay on a couch. She fell into a ditch. It is not at all probable that the Hayes case will be reached before tomorrow. The witnesses are all here, and the case is ready for trial.

Annie Furnace, of Wellsville, has sued Watson Johnson and Mary Sinclair for $2,500. Three years ago they were erecting a building, and the sidewalk was obstructed. Miss Furnace in passing struck her foot against the obstruction, and was thrown to the ground. Marriage licenses were issued to Joe B. Morgan and Mary Francis, Lisbon; H. Jefferson and Grace Barnett, A. J. Evans and Odessa Arter.

A PROHIBITION SPEECH.

Rev. J. C. Holliday Talked Last Night In the Diamond.

Rev. J. C. Holliday, of Zanesville, spoke in the Diamond for the Prohibition party, last night. The gentleman leads the Prohibition ticket as the candidate for governor. He is an eloquent and entertaining orator, and the greater part of the crowd heard his speech throughout in spite of the weather.

Leaders of the party in this city are preparing for another meeting, which will be addressed by Edward Mills, a noted temperance orator.

Strengthening the Team.

The Rovers football club will meet this evening and select the team for the game next Saturday. The eleven will be strengthened in a few weeks with Hernan and Cannon, of Youngstown, and Deane, of Coraopolis.

The Monarchs failed to meet last evening, but have scheduled a game with Wellsville for Saturday afternoon at the fair ground.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12.—From the returns there is little hope in the yellow fever situation. The board of health is daily demonstrating that, with a fair show, it is possible for modern science to restrict and stamp out the disease. But the people who must suffer from a strict application of scientific methods rebel, the result being that the pathway of the board of health is beset with difficulties. If there was strict compliance with the health laws; if prompt report was made of cases, the fever germ would quickly be wiped out. But it begins to look now as if from 30 to 40 cases and from 4 to 6 deaths would be daily reported until jack frost puts in an appearance.

As on nearly every day since the fever first appeared here, about 50 per cent of the fatalities was traceable to neglect and a disposition to hide cases until it was too late to do anything to save life. The case of Robert Hite was reported. He had been ill for some time. People in the vicinity of where he lived knew he was ill, yet no report was made to the authorities, and the announcement of the Hite case was almost contemporaneous with his death. The official bulletin of the board of health showed four deaths and 35 new cases.

MOBILE, Oct. 12.—The record showed but five new cases and no deaths.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 12.—The report from Nitta Yuma is to the effect that there are no new cases there.

At Edwards there have been reported five new cases, one white and four colored. One has black vomit and two deaths.

GALVESTON, Oct. 12.—There are three new cases of yellow fever here.

There are four cases of fever at Houston.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12.—The city council has passed a resolution throwing open the doors of San Antonio to yellow fever refugees from Galveston and other coast cities and invited citizens of those cities to come here during the present yellow fever at their homes. During the past 50 years no yellow fever has developed here, notwithstanding many refugees have come here from infected points and died with the fever.

Yellow Fever at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—Emil Grann, a fireman on the Norwegian steamer Somerhill, which arrived here on Saturday last, has developed a mild case of yellow fever, contracted in Santiago de Cuba. He has been placed in the hospital at quarantine, and the ship will be thoroughly fumigated.

NO TRIAL TODAY.

The Hayes Case Is Delayed by Salem Parties.

LISBON, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—The claim of Miss Nettie Fawcett for $10,000 from Salem is being contested in court, and will not go to the jury before evening. Miss Fawcett was permanently injured, and in court is compelled to lay on a couch. She fell into a ditch. It is not at all probable that the Hayes case will be reached before tomorrow. The witnesses are all here, and the case is ready for trial.

Annie Furnace, of Wellsville, has sued Watson Johnson and Mary Sinclair for $2,500. Three years ago they were erecting a building, and the sidewalk was obstructed. Miss Furnace in passing struck her foot against the obstruction, and was thrown to the ground.

Marriage licenses were issued to Joe B. Morgan and Mary Francis, Lisbon; H. Jefferson and Grace Barnett, A. J. Evans and Odessa Arter.

A PROHIBITION SPEECH.

Rev. J. C. Holliday Talked Last Night In the Diamond.

Rev. J. C. Holliday, of Zanesville, spoke in the Diamond for the Prohibition party, last night. The gentleman leads the Prohibition ticket as the candidate for governor. He is an eloquent and entertaining orator, and the greater part of the crowd heard his speech throughout in spite of the weather.

Leaders of the party in this city are preparing for another meeting, which will be addressed by Edward Mills, a noted temperance orator.

Strengthening the Team.

The Rovers football club will meet this evening and select the team for the game next Saturday. The eleven will be strengthened in a few weeks with Herndon and Cannon, of Youngstown, and Deane, of Corapolis.

The Monarchs failed to meet last evening, but have scheduled a game with Wellsville for Saturday afternoon at the fair ground.

WITH THEIR MINISTER

Rev. J. H. Norris Is Not Standing Alone.

HE HAS MANY ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs. Norris Was Elected to a Responsible Position—No Date Has Been Set For the Investigation—His Opponents Are Determined.

The case of Rev. Mr. Norris, of the Mt. Washington Presbyterian church, continues to excite interest in Pittsburg, and the reverend gentleman has his time well occupied filling engagements.

He conducted services at his church on Sunday, but made no reference to the trouble between himself and some members of the congregation because he preached holiness. The committee appointed by Pittsburg presbytery has not yet made any date with the session to investigate the matter. Mrs. Norris, his wife, has been elected superintendent of the primary department in the Sabbath school since the trouble began. Mr. Norris preached last evening in the Fulton Street Evangelical church, and will probably continue services each evening during the week. He also speaks at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning at an all-day holiness meeting at the Allegheny branch of Hope mission, 173 Lacock street.

Since the announcement of his conversion Mr. Norris' friends have showed their sympathy in every possible manner, and he has more invitations to speak than he can well attend to. On the other hand, his opponents are determined that he shall explain his conduct to the commission.

The birds of the field do not seem to be afraid of Liverpool people, for a number of quails and pheasants have recently been seen in town.

A resident of Seventh street found one at his front door the other morning. It attempted to get away, but flew against the house and was killed.

A flock of quail and a number of rabbits were seen in the yard at the sewer pipe works, in East End the other day, and a rabbit skipped along Washington street one day last week. Sportsmen cannot understand what brings the game to town.

ROUNDLY DENOUNCED IN ENGLAND.

Adherents of John Redmond Held a Hot Convention.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—The first general national convention of the Irish Independent League, organized by John Redmond, M. P., the Parnellite, was attended by 800 enthusiastic delegates, who cheered vociferously every point in the speeches which met with their approval and jeered the names of Dillon, Healy and Davitt, as well as hissing the name of Mr. Gladstone when Mr. Redmond characterized him as "the Englishman who betrayed Ireland."

The climax of the convention was reached when, during a speech delivered by William Redmond, he said that when the Dillonites rejected Parnell they "alienated the United States, thus killing the goose which laid the golden egg."

Continuing, Mr. Redmond said, he would never walk into any room to be controlled by Dimmon and Healy, though he was for unity, adding: "With all the royal processions through our streets it is time for Irishmen to say something. The great mass of the Irish people are today and will be until liberty is given them, the enemies of England. England is a bully, a pirate and a savage. Whether in India or Africa, the bloody flag of the British empire has been advanced by plundering and destroying poor people. Our sympathy goes out to these poor people. God bless them and give success to their efforts. Three cheers for the men in India who are fighting England."

The delegates thereupon climbed upon their seats and shouted: "Down with Britain."

Much denunciation of England and talk of 1798 followed. Mr. Kelly of Manchester, for instance, saying that Ireland would have her jubilee in 1898 "over the attempt of honest men to do honest work for Ireland."

BALTIMORE TOOK THE CUP.

Won the Last Game of the Series With Ease.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—The Temple cup will stay in Baltimore another year. It has been won twice in succession for the first time in its history, and if the Orioles take it again it is theirs absolutely. The former champions also take 60 per cent of the money paid in at the gates during the three games in Boston and the two played here, while the winners of the pennant will get but 40 per cent, unless, as is generally believed, the players have agreed among themselves to divide the spoils equally. Yesterday's game, like all the others of the series save the first one, was an easy proposition for the Baltimoreans, who won much as they pleased, while the visitors never appeared to think they had any chance whatever. The score:

Baltimore	0	2	3	0	0	0	2	2	—	9	13	2
Boston	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	3	15	3

The Arguments Now Being Made in the Luetgert Case.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The Luetgert trial has come to a sudden and unexpected close. Witnesses which the defense had called in sur-rebuttal failed to respond when their names were called and finally ex-Judge Vincent announced to the court that the case of the defense was all in. "We rest," concluded Luetgert's chief counsel. A sigh of relief was heard in the courtroom.

After a brief consultation by the counsel in the case it was agreed to begin arguments to the jury. Assistant State's Attorney McEwen opened. He will be followed by Attorney Phalen. Ex-Judge Vincent will close for the defense and State's Attorney Deneen will close for the prosecution. The case will go to the jury probably next Saturday night.

TAX RIOT IN ROME.

One of the Mob Killed and Six Policemen Injured.

ROME, Oct. 12.—A large procession of tradesmen, headed by the pro-syndic of Rome and the president of the chamber of commerce, marched to the office of the minister of the interior to protest against and confer with the government regarding the increasing taxation. Premier Rudini, who is also minister of the interior, received a committee representing the tradesmen and promised that all possible would be done to promote friendly relations and greater equity between the tax collectors and taxpayers.

In the meanwhile a large crowd of people had collected around the ministry. Angry shouts were heard and some of those present tore up paving stones and otherwise assumed a threatening attitude. This caused the police to make an attempt to disperse the violent position of the crowd, and in the conflict which followed six policemen were injured and one rioter was killed.

In the shadow of this bitter sorrow and disgrace. Even while he could not accept the belief that his boy was actually a deserter and a thief, he knew full well what other men must think. But Captain Cross was a cavalryman himself and had known old Waller for years. He dropped his rifle, came straight forward and took him by the hand.

"Sergeant, I don't believe it of your boy. I've known his father too long," was all he said as he pressed the veteran's hand. Poor old Waller, worn with anguish, long vigil and utter lack of food of any kind, was now so weak that he could only, with the utmost difficulty, choke back the sobs that shook his frame. Speak he dare not. He would have broken down. Cross led him to the luncheon at the station and made him swallow a cup of coffee, then gently questioned him as to what he knew.

"We go at once to Red Cloud—Colonel Gaines and I—and maybe on the road I shall hear something of him. Sergeant, rest assured your son shall have fair play," said the aid-de-camp as he was about to turn away.

"But, captain—I beg pardon, sir," broke in Waller hurriedly in almost the first words he had spoken. "Where is your escort? Surely you won't take this route without one?"

"There isn't a trooper at Sidney, sergeant. We have a couple of infantrymen in the wagon and another on a mule. That's the best we can do, and we've got no time to spare. We must be at Red Cloud tomorrow, and this is the shortest line."

"But, sir, haven't you heard? The Sioux are out in force and all along the road, both above and below the Platte. There's a herder on the train who told us. He got aboard at Pine Bluffs this morning."

"I can hardly believe that," answered Cross. "Captain Forrest with the Grays is scouting south of Red Cloud. Captain Wallace was ordered to watch the fords along the Platte on this line. Captain Charlton is out, or at least the whole troop has been, and there are three more. Surely Major Edwards would know over at the barracks if the Indians were anywhere between us and the river—we'll get an escort from Captain Wallace the other side—but he has not heard a word."

"But I beg the captain to hear what the man says, sir," urged Sergeant Waller. "He's been drinking, but he tells the same story practically that he told us when he got aboard. Let me find him, sir."

And find him he did, even more maudlin and thick tongued by this time, and evidently determined to make the most of his dramatic story for the benefit of the two officers and swarm of interested lookers on. He only succeeded in inspiring the colonel with mingled incredulity and disgust.

"I don't believe a word of it," he said to Captain Cross. "And we are losing valuable time. We must start at once."

An hour later this peaceful Sabbath morning the sergeant stood, cap in hand, before Major Edwards on the veranda of his pleasant quarters. Two pretty children were playing with a big, shaggy, lazy staghound, pulling his ears and tormenting him in various ways. A pleasant faced lady came forth, sunshade and prayer book in hand, and at sight of her the little ones reluctantly rose and bade goodby to their four footed friend, and the party started slowly away across the green parade to the post chapel, nodding and smiling to the spruce orderly, who stood respectfully aside to let them pass. Mrs. Edwards glanced quickly and sympathetically into the sergeant's sad face as he stood there before her husband's easy chair. She knew well what it all meant, but there was nothing for her to say. Small parties of infantry officers and of ladies and children joined them on the way to the humble wooden sanctuary; the soft notes of the bugle were sounding church call; a warm, gentle breeze from the southern plains stirred the folds of the big flag; the sunshine was joyous and brilliant, and all spoke of peace, order and contentment. Yet there stood Waller with almost bursting heart, and yonder, only a few miles across the grassy ridge to the north, rode that little party of officers and men to almost certain death.

The major looked up as he finished reading the letter placed in his hands.

"I have no words to tell you of my sympathy and sorrow, sergeant. Of course you know my plain duty in the matter. The sheriff has been notified, and two of his deputies already have gone out to search. He would hardly be mad enough to come anywhere near us if guilty. But if he is taken he will be held here under my charge, and I will see that you have every proper opportunity of visiting him. The adjutant tells me you had heard something of the Indians being south of the Platte. What was it?"

"A man who boarded our train at the Bluffs, sir. He claimed to have had to ride hard for his life yesterday afternoon, and that there were scores of the Sioux this side of the river. I took him to Colonel Gaines and Captain Cross, sir, but the man had been drinking so much that they distrusted him entirely. They left the station before I started for the barracks, sir."

"I don't believe a word of it," he said to Captain Cross.

The major sat thoughtfully gazing out across the parade a moment, then answered:

"We have had no rumors of anything of the kind, and they would be almost sure to come this way to us if any one heard of such stories. There are no settlers along the road after leaving the springs out here until you reach the Platte. I can hardly believe it, but we'll see what can be got from the man when he sobers up. Now the sergeant major will go with you to the quarters, and I will see you later in the day."

But later in the day that promise was forgotten in an excitement of far greater magnitude.

CHAPTER IX.

LURKING FOES.

Church was over. The bugler had just sounded mess call, and the soldiers in their neat "undress" uniform were just going in to dinner, when a man on a "cow pony"—one of those wiry, active little steeds so much in use around the cattle herd—came full speed into the garrison and threw himself from the saddle at Major Edwards' gate. It was the telegraph operator at the railway station. In his hands were two brown envelopes, and Major Edwards, as he stepped forward to meet him, saw in his face the telltale look of a bearer of bad news.

"I've no idea whose horse that is, major. There were a half dozen of 'em in front of a saloon there in town, and I jumped on the first I saw. These have just come—one from Laramie, one from Omaha. I dropped everything at the office to fetch them to you."

Edwards tore open first one and then the other. The first read:

"Couriers in front of Captain Wallace report large war parties along the Platte and some across, raiding the Sidney road. Four teamsters killed, scalped and mutilated three miles south of river. Bodies found. Warn back everybody attempting to go that way."

The second was from the office of the department commander himself:

"Indians in force south of Platte, on Sidney road. If Colonel Gaines and Captain Cross have started, send couriers at once to recall them."

The major's face was dark with dismay.

"They have been gone nearly four hours," he exclaimed. "Even if I had swift riders ready, who could catch them in time?"

"I've been a trooper all my life, sir," came sudden answer. "Give me a horse and carbine and let me go."

The major might have known 'twas Sergeant Waller.

True to his word and arranging with the officers of the court martial to return in case his further testimony was required, Captain Charlton set forth at daybreak on Saturday, intending to push straight through to Red Cloud as fast as mules could drag or horses bear him. To the Niobrara crossing the road was hard and smooth when once they cleared the sandy wastes of the Platte bottom. He had a capital team, a light ambulance and a little squad of seasoned troopers to go with him as escort. It was a drive of nearly 90 miles, but he proposed resting his animals an hour at the Niobrara, another hour at sunset, feeding and watering carefully each time, and so keeping on to the old agency until he reached his troop late at night.

No danger was to be apprehended until the party got beyond the Rawhide and not very much until they were across the Niobrara, but Charlton and his half dozen troopers had been over each inch of the ground time and again, and very little did they dread the Sioux.

After midday the little party had halted close beside the spot where Blunt's detachment had made their bivouac so short a time before. Here were the ashes of their cook fires and the countless hoof prints of the horses. Here, too, was the trail in double file, leading away northward across the prairie, a short cut to the Red Cloud road. Charlton followed it with his

The grand and beautiful Bible story of Abraham intercepted on the point of slaying his cherished son has a deep significance which every mother should take to heart. Too many mothers of the present day bind their children upon the altar of neglect and misunderstanding, all unmindful that beneficent providence forbids the sacrifice.

Women who expect to be mothers do not care for their own health as they ought, and thus the health and lifelong welfare of the prospective little one is sacrificed. All women should know and use the health-supporting power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in every delicate condition of the organs pertaining to maternity.

This special organism is directly strengthened and reinforced by this wonderful "Prescription." It renders the ordeal of motherhood entirely safe and comparatively easy; it gives constitutional energy and vigor to both mother and child; it absolutely cures every form of female weakness and disease. It is the only medicine in existence devised for this particular purpose by an educated, skilled physician of thirty years experience in this special field of practice. A full account of its marvelous properties is given in one chapter of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a paper-bound copy of which will be sent on receipt of twenty-one one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only, or handsomely cloth-bound for thirty-one stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman should read this book.

W. R. Malcolm, of Knobel, Clay County, Arkansas, writes: "Since I last wrote you we have had a baby girl born to us. My wife took your 'Favorite Prescription' all during the expectant period and until confinement, and she had no trouble to mention."

Some Items of Interest Furnished Our Representative by a Well-Known Lady.

Items pertaining to the domestic life of people we don't know, who live in foreign parts, are as a rule dry and uninteresting to our readers. It is only when such items touch upon some matter or individual of which the reader has some knowledge that attention is centered upon them, and in the present instance a perusal of what follows will be found not only interesting, but valuable. Remember always, keep it in mind, don't lose sight of the fact that one line of local evidence about any article is worth a column of foreign testimony. Read what this resident says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the past eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have not felt any since. I feel much better and stronger generally."

in the shadow of this bitter sorrow and disgrace. Even while he could not accept the belief that his boy was actually a deserter and a thief, he knew full well what other men must think. But Captain Cross was a cavalryman himself and had known old Waller for years. He dropped his rifle, came straight forward and took him by the hand.

"Sergeant, I don't believe it of your boy. I've known his father too long," was all he said as he pressed the veteran's hand. Poor old Waller, worn with anguish, long vigil and utter lack of food of any kind, was now so weak that he could only, with the utmost difficulty, choke back the sobs that shook his frame. Speak he dare not. He would have broken down. Cross led him to the lunchroom at the station and made him swallow a cup of coffee, then gently questioned him as to what he knew.

"We go at once to Red Cloud—Colonel Gaines and I—and maybe on the road I shall hear something of him. Sergeant, rest assured your son shall have fair play," said the aid-de-camp as he was about to turn away.

"But, captain—I beg pardon, sir," broke in Waller hurriedly in almost the first words he had spoken. "Where is your escort? Surely you won't take this route without one?"

"There isn't a trooper at Sidney, sergeant. We have a couple of infantrymen in the wagon and another on a mule. That's the best we can do, and we've got no time to spare. We must be at Red Cloud tomorrow, and this is the shortest line."

"But, sir, haven't you heard? The Sioux are out in force and all along the road, both above and below the Platte. There's a herder on the train who told us. He got aboard at Pine Bluffs this morning."

"I can hardly believe that," answered Cross. "Captain Forrest with the Grays is scouting south of Red Cloud. Captain Wallace was ordered to watch the fords along the Platte on this line. Captain Charlton is out, or at least the whole troop has been, and there are three more. Surely Major Edwards would know over at the barracks if the Indians were anywhere between us and the river—we'll get an escort from Captain Wallace the other side—but he has not heard a word."

"But I beg the captain to hear what the man says, sir," urged Sergeant Waller. "He's been drinking, but he tells the same story practically that he told us when he got aboard. Let me find him, sir."

And find him he did, even more maudlin and thick tongued by this time, and evidently determined to make the most of his dramatic story for the benefit of the two officers and swarm of interested lookers on. He only succeeded in inspiring the colonel with mingled incredulity and disgust.

"I don't believe a word of it," he said to Captain Cross. "And we are losing valuable time. We must start at once."

An hour later this peaceful Sabbath morning the sergeant stood, cap in hand, before Major Edwards on the veranda of his pleasant quarters. Two pretty children were playing with a big, shaggy, lazy staghound, pulling his ears and tormenting him in various ways. A pleasant faced lady came forth, sunshade and prayer book in hand, and at sight of her the little ones reluctantly rose and bade goodbye to their four footed friend, and the party started slowly away across the green parade to the post chapel, nodding and smiling to the spruce orderly, who stood respectfully aside to let them pass. Mrs. Edwards glanced quickly and sympathetically into the sergeant's sad face as he stood there before her husband's easy chair. She knew well what it all meant, but there was nothing for her to say. Small parties of infantry officers and of ladies and children joined them on the way to the humble wooden sanctuary; the soft notes of the bugle were sounding church call; a warm, gentle breeze from the southern plains stirred the folds of the big flag; the sunshine was joyous and brilliant, and all spoke of peace, order and contentment. Yet there stood Waller with almost bursting heart, and yonder, only a few miles across the grassy ridge to the north, rode that little party of officers and men to almost certain death.

The major looked up as he finished reading the letter placed in his hands.

"I have no words to tell you of my sympathy and sorrow, sergeant. Of course you know my plain duty in the matter. The sheriff has been notified, and two of his deputies already have gone out to search. He would hardly be mad enough to come anywhere near us if guilty. But if he is taken he will be held here under my charge, and I will see that you have every proper opportunity of visiting him. The adjutant tells me you had heard something of the Indians being south of the Platte. What was it?"

"A man who boarded our train at the Bluffs, sir. He claimed to have had to ride hard for his life yesterday afternoon, and that there were scores of the Sioux this side of the river. I took him to Colonel Gaines and Captain Cross, sir, but the man had been drinking so much that they distrusted him entirely. They left the station before I started for the barracks, sir."

"I don't believe a word of it," he said to Captain Cross.

The major sat thoughtfully gazing out across the parade a moment, then answered:

"We have had no rumors of anything of the kind, and they would be almost sure to come this way to us if any one heard of such stories. There are no settlers along the road after leaving the springs out here until you reach the Platte. I can hardly believe it, but we'll see what can be got from the man when he sobers up. Now the sergeant major will go with you to the quarters, and I will see you later in the day."

But later in the day that promise was forgotten in an excitement of far greater magnitude.

CHAPTER IX.

LURKING FOES.

Church was over. The bugler had just sounded mess call, and the soldiers in their neat "undress" uniform were just going in to dinner, when a man on a "cow pony"—one of those wiry, active little steeds so much in use around the cattle herd—came full speed into the garrison and threw himself from the saddle at Major Edwards' gate. It was the telegraph operator at the railway station. In his hands were two brown envelopes, and Major Edwards, as he stepped forward to meet him, saw in his face the telltale look of a bearer of bad news.

"I've no idea whose horse that is, major. There were a half dozen of 'em in front of a saloon there in town, and I jumped on the first I saw. These have just come—one from Laramie, one from Omaha. I dropped everything at the office to fetch them to you."

Edwards tore open first one and then the other. The first read:

"Couriers in front of Captain Wallace report large war parties along the Platte and some across, raiding the Sidney road. Four teamsters killed, scalped and mutilated three miles south of river. Bodies found. Warn back everybody attempting to go that way."

The second was from the office of the department commander himself:

"Indians in force south of Platte, on Sidney road. If Colonel Gaines and Captain Cross have started, send couriers at once to recall them."

The major's face was dark with dismay.

"They have been gone nearly four hours," he exclaimed. "Even if I had swift riders ready, who could catch them in time?"

"I've been a trooper all my life, sir," came sudden answer. "Give me a horse and carbine and let me go."

The major might have known 'twas Sergeant Waller.

True to his word and arranging with the officers of the court martial to return in case his further testimony was required, Captain Charlton set forth at daybreak on Saturday, intending to push straight through to Red Cloud as fast as mules could drag or horses bear him. To the Niobrara crossing the road was hard and smooth when once they cleared the sandy wastes of the Platte bottom. He had a capital team, a light ambulance and a little squad of seasoned troopers to go with him as escort. It was a drive of nearly 90 miles, but he proposed resting his animals an hour at the Niobrara, another hour at sunset, feeding and watering carefully each time, and so keeping on to the old agency until he reached his troop late at night.

No danger was to be apprehended until the party got beyond the Rawhide and not very much until they were across the Niobrara, but Charlton and his half dozen troopers had been over each inch of the ground time and again, and very little did they dread the Sioux.

After midday the little party had halted close beside the spot where Blunt's detachment had made their bivouac so short a time before. Here were the ashes of their cook fires and the countless hoof prints of the horses. Here, too, was the trail in double file, leading away northward across the prairie, a short cut to the Red Cloud road. Charlton followed it with his

The grand and beautiful Bible story of Abraham intercepted on the point of slaying his cherished son has a deep significance which every mother should take to heart. Too many mothers of the present day bind their children upon the altar of neglect and misunderstanding, all unmindful that beneficent providence forbids the sacrifice.

Women who expect to be mothers do not care for their own health as they ought, and thus the health and lifelong welfare of the prospective little one is sacrificed. All women should know and use the health-supporting power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in every delicate condition of the organs pertaining to maternity.

This special organism is directly strengthened and reinforced by this wonderful "Prescription." It renders the ordeal of motherhood entirely safe and comparatively easy; it gives constitutional energy and vigor to both mother and child; it absolutely cures every form of female weakness and disease. It is the only medicine in existence devised for this particular purpose by an educated, skilled physician of thirty years' experience in this special field of practice. A full account of its marvelous properties is given in one chapter of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a paper-bound copy of which will be sent on receipt of twenty-one one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only, or handsomely cloth-bound for thirty-one stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman should read this book.

W. R. Malcolm, of Knobel, Clay County, Arkansas, writes: "Since I last wrote you we have had a baby girl born to us. My wife took your 'Favorite Prescription' all during the expectant period and until confinement, and she had no trouble to mention."

Some Items of Interest Furnished Our Representative by a Well-Known Lady.

Items pertaining to the domestic life of people we don't know, who live in foreign parts, are as a rule dry and uninteresting to our readers. It is only when such items touch upon some matter or individual of which the reader has some knowledge that attention is centered upon them, and in the present instance a perusal of what follows will be found not only interesting, but valuable. Remember always keep it in mind, don't lose sight of the fact that one line of local evidence about any article is worth a column of foreign testimony. Read what this resident says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the past eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have not felt any since. I feel much better and stronger generally."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50. By mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States.

WELLSVILLE.

THE SWITCH AT LAST

Council Decided to Condemn the Necessary Land.

THE TRACKS WILL BE LAID

On the Right of Way From Fourth to Eleventh Streets—Some Sore Policemen. To Inspect the Road—All the News of Wellsville.

After much talking and a great deal of work, council has at last taken the steps which will end in the construction of a switch through the upper part of town.

An ordinance opening the alley which will be used by the line was passed under suspension of the rules last night. The ordinance provides for an alley from Fourth to Eleventh streets to be 20 feet wide, and the solicitor is authorized to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a jury to assess the compensation. It will be paid for out of the road fund.

Mayor Jones was notified of the passage of the ordinance and will lose no time in notifying property owners.

The board of trade are pleased with the result of their efforts. The company expect to begin the construction of the switch at once.

Hit the Officer.

Officer Morgan was making an arrest last night, when he was struck on the head, but not badly hurt.

CONDITION OF CROPS.

Reports on the Various Products by the Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The October report of the statistician of the department of agriculture shows the average condition of corn on Oct. 1 to have been 77.1, as compared with 79.3 on Sept. 1, with 90.5 on Oct. 1, 1896, and 82.5 the average for the last 10 years. There has been an improvement of 6 points in Maryland and a decline of 8 points in Ohio.

The preliminary estimate of the yield per acre of oats is 28.1 bushels, an increase of 3.8 bushels per acre over the October estimate of last year.

Pennsylvania shows an increase in rye of 2 points. The average for quality is 92.7, as compared with 89.9 in October of last year.

The condition of buckwheat has declined since Sept. 1 43 points, the condition on Oct. 1 being 90.8. The condition of barley shows an improvement of 1.2 points during the month, standing on Oct. 1 at 87.6 points.

The average yield of wheat per acre will not be published pending the investigation of acreage and production now approaching completion.

The condition of tobacco shows a decline of 5.2 points during September, Pennsylvania and Maryland showing an improvement of 3 and 11 points. Ohio declined 2 points.

The condition of Irish potatoes has declined 5.1 points. In Pennsylvania it declined 5 points.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.

Interesting Figures Given in the Treasurer's Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The annual report of the treasurer of the United States will show that on June 30, 1896, the total available assets of the treasury were $55,685,321 and on June 30, 1897, they had increased to $874,764,377. Of these sums $308,354,448 was available on June 30, 1896, and $283,295,424 on June 30, 1897, for the strictly fiscal operations of the government. On June 30, 1896, $547,330,973 and on June 30, 1897, $591,468,953 was held on deposit against outstanding certificates and treasury notes. In addition to the net ordinary revenues, the treasury received $15,448,970 in deposits for the retirement of national bank notes and $3,250 in refunding certificates for conversion into bonds, so that the total income available for the fiscal operations of the year was $363,173,925.

As against this there was disbursed besides the ordinary expenses the sum of $11,378,502 on account of bonds and fractional currency, and the further sum of $11,092,355 in the retirement of national bank notes, making a total of $388,245,017. The net loss of available cash arising from these operations, therefore, was $25,071,091. In the issue of paper currency the operations of the year, which amounted to $374,848,000, was exceeded in only one year, 1892, and then only a narrow margin. The redemptions, amounting to $3,071,020, were also relatively higher.

TO DECIDE DURRANT'S FATE.

California Attorney General Will Fush Case Before U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Attorney General Fitzgerald of California has been admitted to the bar of the supreme court. Mr. Fitzgerald came to Washington for the purpose of representing the state in the Durrant murder case. Durrant has appealed from the decision of the United States circuit court denying his motion for a writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Fitzgerald said that he would enter a motion for the advancement of the case upon the docket.

END OF THE GREAT DROUGHT.

Falling of Rain a Providential Blessing. Much Damage Had Been Done.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The drought just broken has for severity and wide area of country affected never been equalled in the period covered by authoritative record in this country. Crops have suffered, fruit has been blasted, fires have leaped up as if from spontaneous combustion in field and woodland and every moment of the time since the middle of August has been crowded with danger to cities. Farmers have been hauling water for their stock, even buying the fluid in many sections of the country. Many small towns throughout the country have suffered severely from fires.

Conservative estimates place the reduction in acreage of winter wheat at 25 per cent. Thousands of acres throughout the affected district have not even been ploughed, the ground being in such a condition as to render farm work next to impossible. To stockraisers the rain is a providential blessing. Pastures which have been dried up for weeks will be available once more. In many localities it has been necessary to feed stock for three weeks past. Weather bureau officials said that indications pointed to a continuance of the rainfall.

AN IMMENSE STRIKE.

Four Hundred Thousand Men Will Quit Owing to Engineers' Dispute.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The secretary of the Federated Trades, comprising 30 important industries, announces that the executive committee has definitely decided to call out all its members, in sympathy with the struggle of the engineers against their employers, on Friday next, when it is estimated that a total of 400,000 men will be out of work on account of the great labor dispute.

OWENS ON THE STAND.

The Co-Defendant of Mrs. Atkinson Gave His Testimony.

GLENVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 12.—At the trial of Mrs. Atkinson Owens, the co-defendant, took the stand. In his testimony he stated that he had in 1887 been employed by Judge Camden as an agent in the sale of land, that he made a bona fide purchase of land from Camden, and that the receipts for the purchase money, which the prosecution claims Mrs. Atkinson forged, are genuine, bear true date and were written at the dictation of Judge Camden and given to defendant for purchase money actually paid in cash and labor. The cross-examination of Owens is in progress.

The state claims that there are flaws in Owens' statement which they will be able to show to the jury.

Cross-examination of other witnesses seemed to weaken the defense.

A Miraculous Draft of Fishes.

The dwellers on the banks of the Neckar, near the good old German town of Heilbronn, had an experience the other day which must have reminded them of the miraculous draft of fishes. A few days ago, toward evening, the worthy Heilbronnians perceived that the Neckar was toward both its banks one moving mass of all sorts and conditions of fish, thronging landward in seeming anxiety to be caught. Nor was this tacit appeal at all disregarded, for every man, woman and child of the vicinity ran out with pots and pans, with spades and rakes, and pails and baskets to help himself or herself to a share of fish. The explanation of the miracle, which perchance might prove a hint to fisher folk, was that the river had become so muddy after recent heavy rains that the fish found it difficult to breathe in the "thick" water and had approached the banks for more air.—Westminster Gazette.

The Very Earliest Coins.

No one knows exactly when or where the original coin was "struck" or what metal was used. Certain passages in Homer would lead to the inference that brass was coined as early as the year 1184 B. C. Tradition affirms that the Chinese had bronze coins as early as the year 1120 B. C. But Herodotus, the acknowledged "Father of History," is of the opinion that the Lydians "invented" coins some time during the ninth century B. C. One of the oldest coins now known is a gold daric, coined by the Persians during the reign of Darius. On one side of this coin is a bust of Darius and on the other side a figure of a kneeling archer.

WELLSVILLE.

THE SWITCH AT LAST

Council Decided to Condemn the Necessary Land.

THE TRACKS WILL BE LAID

On the Right of Way From Fourth to Eleventh Streets—Some Sore Policemen. To Inspect the Road—All the News of Wellsville.

After much talking and a great deal of work, council has at last taken the steps which will end in the construction of a switch through the upper part of town.

An ordinance opening the alley which will be used by the line was passed under suspension of the rules last night. The ordinance provides for an alley from Fourth to Eleventh streets to be 20 feet wide, and the solicitor is authorized to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a jury to assess the compensation. It will be paid for out of the road fund.

Mayor Jones was notified of the passage of the ordinance and will lose no time in notifying property owners.

The board of trade are pleased with the result of their efforts. The company expect to begin the construction of the switch at once.

Hit the Officer.

Officer Morgan was making an arrest last night, when he was struck on the head, but not badly hurt.

The News of Wellsville.

Mr. Ewing, of Pomroy, is in the city visiting Charley Ewing, of Broadway.

A marriage ceremony will be performed at the residence of Henry Queer in Hill street at 7:30 this evening.

Workmen commenced putting in the much talked of heater in the West End school today.

President Thompson, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg, will leave Martin's Ferry on his tour of inspection on the 20th.

Robert Bone and family, of Nicholson's addition, who have been spending the week in Salineville, are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett are visiting a son in Columbus.

It is thought the Pioneer pottery will soon start for a steady run for the winter. John Anderson, who died at his residence on Tenth street Sunday morning, was buried today at 1:30 o'clock. He was one of the oldest residents of the city.

A. C. McBane, formerly of this city, will be wedded to Miss Davis, of Wheeling. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride on Wheeling island next Thursday evening, and a number of Mr. McBane's friends from here will be in attendance.

Mrs. Melissa Kelly, who has been in Sistersville for some time, returned home yesterday, and on her arrival the family held a reunion at the home of Grant Kelly with all the relatives in the city present.

John Burnfield left yesterday for Kensington where he has purchased a farm. Roy Russell accompanied him.

Mrs. Bradley, of First street, has been visiting in Pittsburg, and on her return recently was surprised by all her sons and daughters. This is the first time they have all been together for five years. Mrs. Bradley was remembered with numerous presents.

The first kiln was placed at Lythe's yesterday.

A. M. Moser, formerly of Lisbon, is in the city. He has been making headquarters in Columbus, but will remain here with his parents for some time.

A. P. Howard left for Columbus yesterday, after being at home over Sunday.

William A. Saunders, of Cleveland, is in the city looking after his father who is very sick.

CONDITION OF CROPS.

Reports on the Various Products by the Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The October report of the statistician of the department of agriculture shows the average condition of corn on Oct. 1 to have been 77.1, as compared with 79.3 on Sept. 1, with 90.5 on Oct. 1, 1896, and 82.5 the average for the last 10 years. There has been an improvement of 6 points in Maryland and a decline of 8 points in Ohio.

The preliminary estimate of the yield per acre of oats is 28.1 bushels, an increase of 3.8 bushels per acre over the October estimate of last year.

Pennsylvania shows an increase in rye of 2 points. The average for quality is 92.7, as compared with 89.9 in October of last year.

The condition of buckwheat has declined since Sept. 1 43 points, the condition on Oct. 1 being 90.8. The condition of barley shows an improvement of 1.2 points during the month, standing on Oct. 1 at 87.6 points.

The average yield of wheat per acre will not be published pending the investigation of acreage and production now approaching completion.

The condition of tobacco shows a decline of 5.2 points during September, Pennsylvania and Maryland showing an improvement of 3 and 11 points. Ohio declined 2 points.

The condition of Irish potatoes has declined 5.1 points. In Pennsylvania it declined 5 points.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.

Interesting Figures Given in the Treasurer's Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The annual report of the treasurer of the United States will show that on June 30, 1896, the total available assets of the treasury were $355,685,321 and on June 30, 1897, they had increased to $874,764,377. Of these sums $308,354,448 was available on June 30, 1896, and $283,295,424 on June 30, 1897, for the strictly fiscal operations of the government. On June 30, 1896, $547,330,973 and on June 30, 1897, $591,468,953 was held on deposit against outstanding certificates and treasury notes. In addition to the net ordinary revenues, the treasury received $15,448,970 in deposits for the retirement of national bank notes and $3,250 in refunding certificates for conversion into bonds, so that the total income available for the fiscal operations of the year was $363,173,925.

As against this there was disbursed besides the ordinary expenses the sum of $11,378,502 on account of bonds and fractional currency, and the further sum of $11,092,355 in the retirement of national bank notes, making a total of $38,468,357. The net loss of available cash arising from these operations, therefore, was $25,071,091. In the issue of paper currency the operations of the year, which amounted to $374,848,000, was exceeded in only one year, 1892, and then by only a narrow margin. The redemptions, amounting to $33,071,020, were also relatively higher.

TO DECIDE DURRANT'S FATE.

California Attorney General Will Push Case Before U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Attorney General Fitzgerald of California has been admitted to the bar of the supreme court. Mr. Fitzgerald came to Washington for the purpose of representing the state in the Durrant murder case. Durrant has appealed from the decision of the United States circuit court denying his motion for a writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Fitzgerald said that he would enter a motion for the advancement of the case upon the docket.

It is understood to be his purpose later to move to dismiss the appeal and as soon as possible secure a final determination of all legal proceedings in the celebrated murder case.

END OF THE GREAT DROUGHT.

Falling of Rain a Providential Blessing. Much Damage Had Been Done.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The drought just broken has for severity and wide area of country affected never been equalled in the period covered by authoritative record in this country. Crops have suffered, fruit has been blasted, fires have leaped up as if from spontaneous combustion in field and woodland and every moment of the time since the middle of August has been crowded with danger to cities. Farmers have been hauling water for their stock, even buying the fluid in many sections of the country. Many small towns throughout the country have suffered severely from fires.

Conservative estimates place the reduction in acreage of winter wheat at 25 per cent. Thousands of acres throughout the affected district have not even been ploughed, the ground being in such a condition as to render farm work next to impossible. To stockraisers the rain is a providential blessing. Pastures which have been dried up for weeks will be available once more. In many localities it has been necessary to feed stock for three weeks past. Weather bureau officials said that indications pointed to a continuance of the rainfall.

AN IMMENSE STRIKE.

Four Hundred Thousand Men Will Quit Owing to Engineers' Dispute.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The secretary of the Federated Trades, comprising 30 important industries, announces that the executive committee has definitely decided to call out all its members, in sympathy with the struggle of the engineers against their employers, on Friday next, when it is estimated that a total of 400,000 men will be out of work on account of the great labor dispute.

OWENS ON THE STAND.

The Co-Defendant of Mrs. Atkinson Gave His Testimony.

GLENVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 12.—At the trial of Mrs. Atkinson Owens, the co-defendant, took the stand. In his testimony he stated that he had in 1887 been employed by Judge Camden as an agent in the sale of land, that he made a bonafide purchase of land from Camden, and that the receipts for the purchase money, which the prosecution claims Mrs. Atkinson forged, are genuine, bear true date and were written at the dictation of Judge Camden and given to defendant for purchase money actually paid in cash and labor. The cross-examination of Owens is in progress.

The state claims that there are flaws in Owens' statement which they will be able to show to the jury. Cross-examination of other witnesses seemed to weaken the defense.

A Miraculous Draft of Fishes.

The dwellers on the banks of the Neckar, near the good old German town of Heilbronn, had an experience the other day which must have reminded them of the miraculous draft of fishes. A few days ago, toward evening, the worthy Heilbronnians perceived that the Neckar was toward both its banks one moving mass of all sorts and conditions of fish, thronging landward in seeming anxiety to be caught. Nor was this tacit appeal at all disregarded, for every man, woman and child of the vicinity ran out with pots and pans, with spades and rakes, and pails and baskets to help himself or herself to a share of fish. The explanation of the miracle, which perchance might prove a hint to fisherfolk, was that the river had become so muddy after recent heavy rains that the fish found it difficult to breathe in the "thick" water and had approached the banks for more air.—Westminster Gazette.

The Very Earliest Coins.

No one knows exactly when or where the original coin was "struck" or what metal was used. Certain passages in Homer would lead to the inference that brass was coined as early as the year 1184 B. C. Tradition affirms that the Chinese had bronze coins as early as the year 1120 B. C. But Herodotus, the acknowledged "Father of History," is of the opinion that the Lydians "invented" coins some time during the ninth century B. C. One of the oldest coins now known is a gold daric, coined by the Persians during the reign of Darius. On one side of this coin is a bust of Darius and on the other side a figure of a kneeling archer.

DALLAS, Oct. 12.—The drought of the last eight weeks, which has cut short the cotton crop over all North Texas, dried up the pastures and put a stop to nearly all farm work, has been broken by hard rains.

WHEN Europe is the buyer and America the seller the people on this side of the water are prosperous.

THE gold we sent across the ocean
during the administration of Cleveland
is coming back with interest.

McLEAN is not in Ohio personally
directing the campaign, but his checks
can be sent just as well by mail.

EVERY town in the country, so fortunate to have a pottery within its boundaries, knows full well that prosperity is here.

It's true the weather is dry, but that is no reason that the signs of Republican victory should, like all other signs, fail.

BRYAN is making speeches in Kentucky, but the price per speech is one of the secrets of the campaign. Kentucky
Democrats are pleading poverty.

BRYAN and Tillman are not in the Ohio campaign. Perhaps McLean is learning that dollars spent in paying for the speeches of those gentlemen do not make a paying investment.

SENATOR FORAKER will doubtless be greeted by a great gathering of people
when he comes to the city. He is not alone one of America's most energetic statesmen, but he is an orator whose arguments are as interesting as they are instructive.

WHILE President McKinley is preparing his message to congress he should not forget that a great many people are earnestly hoping he will have something vigorous to say concerning the policy of
of Spain toward the insurgents of Cuba.
The Republicans promised it, and the people expect their representative to carry it out.

A SURE DISTRICT.

There seems little cause for complaint
of hard times in any part of the Eighteenth district. Liverpool's potteries have more orders than they can conveniently fill, while the iron works at Youngstown are employed day and night
with large forces of men. Canton and Salem with their diversified industries
are feeling the influence of returning prosperity, and Alliance, Wellsville
Lisbon and any number of smaller towns are working hard. Through the counties of Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark there is a hurry and hustle which means that the foes of prosperity, those
men who lead the party of calamity,
will waste any portion of their campaign fund that they might spend into this district. Its intelligence will not allow it to support an old theory or clasp
a new one when it knows that separately
or united they mean disaster, idleness
and financial loss. Unless every sign fails, the district which was so ably
represented by the man who now stands at the head of the government, will show
by its vote that it still upholds his splendid principles and endorses his administration.

THEY'LL BUILD HOMES

They Are Tired of Paying Out
Heavy Rent Bills.

THEY WANT THEIR OWN HOMES

They Have Agreed to Purchase Choice
Lots in the East End, and Will Erect
Neat Little Residences Thereon—Go Thou
and Do Likewise.

They have paid rent for long years,
and they have come to the conclusion
that they have been, in a measure, foolish and unwise. They are honest men, and not of that class which believes that "it is cheaper to move than to pay rent." They have been good tenants, and their landlords will be sorry to part with them.
But they have determined to save money
in order to meet the requirements of old age, when they will no longer be able to perform a full day's work. We will give their conversation, and let others profit by it. Read carefully, ye mechanics and workmen of East Liverpool.

"Say, Jack, I suppose you have heard
of this sale of lots which is to take place
in the East End, where the Sebrings are putting up a pottery."

"Yes, Tom, I've heard about it and
read about it, as the NEWS REVIEW
comes to my home every evening, and
the paper is speaking in very favorable
terms about the lots to be sold. Of course
the paper is paid well for saying such nice things, as that is where they make their money. But, in this case, they can't say anything but good things, for
I've been over the ground and examined
it carefully and it's about the nicest plat
of ground that has been laid out for lots
in all this section of country. It's away above high water mark and in splendid condition for the erection of residences,
while the transportation facilities will no doubt be first-class, as I understand that the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad company will establish a station in close proximity to the new pottery, while the street railway will no doubt make connection also, as there will be strong passenger traffic to and fro. Then,
again, the prices asked for lots are reasonable, and the privileges accorded purchasers are all that can be desired. I'm going to invest on the day of the sale,
and I'm going to have a choice lot, unless they run the premiums up to too stiff a figure. I'm tired paying all my earnings out in rent, and I'm going to put up a neat but small house, and add
to it when I can afford to do so."

"Look here, Jack, old boy, if I didn't know you so well, I'd believe that you
had turned land agent and are engaged in landing this plat of ground to the skies on a percentage basis. But I know
you, and I know the lots and the location you're talking about, and you can bet your bottom dollar that I'll be on deck on the 19th and make my little bid
for a good lot. I too am tired of paying heavy rentals, and I'm going to follow
out the same plan you have sketched
out. Let's go up together and see if we can't secure lots side by side. I know you'll make a good neighbor, and I'll try and behave myself when we move into our natty little homes. Buildin' castles in the air, hey Tom? But we'll get there, my boy, all the same. See you later."

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I am with
you, to the letter, in your condemnation
of the non-enforcement of existing laws
and ordinances made to govern East Liverpool. My business compels me to be about the streets almost continually,
and sometimes, I may say frequently,
until a late hour at night, and I am able to prove, in case of necessity, that the laws are shamefully abused, and some of the officials of the city make no attempt to suppress them. Why, sir, there are some officials whom I believe would run away from a scene of trouble, especially when certain voters are engaged therein, for fear they, the officers, might lose a vote or votes, which they are assiduously cultivating. The "Tramp"
who wrote an article in your paper, not long since, evidently knew what he was talking about, and hundreds of indignant voters will vouch for it that he told plain truths; too plain, in fact, to many aspirants for office.

But, Mr. Editor, we have one officer
on the force, to my certain knowledge,
who is doing his full duty against law-
breakers, illegal liquor selling, and like offences, and he will be remembered at
the proper time by conservative citizens.
This officer has been turned down and censured severely at headquarters for his faithful performance of his sworn duty, and he will testify to the truthfulness of this assertion at the time when it will do the most good; possibly at a time when a certain well known official,
who now longs for greater honors than
have been given him, will attempt to make a canvass for the berth he so much desires. He has had the opportunity given him, and has utterly failed in fulfilling the sacred promises made to the voters of East Liverpool. He has been "weighed in the balance and found wanting." His absolute disregard of the solemn obligations he made, when inducted in office, will fell him and defeat him, and the defeat will be a just decision.

A New Commercial Teacher For Ohio Valley Business College.

Professor G. R. Stouffer, of Patterson, Pa., arrived in East Liverpool today, for the purpose of teaching in Ohio Valley Business college. Professor Stouffer will be warmly welcomed in educational circles, as he bears the reputation of being a first-class educator. The Ohio Valley Business college is to be congratulated on the educators now in charge.
East Liverpool will reap the benefit.
Professor Cooper has been untiring and indefatigable in his efforts to bring his

WHEN Europe is the buyer and America the seller the people on this side of
the water are prosperous.

THE gold we sent across the ocean
during the administration of Cleveland
is coming back with interest.

McLEAN is not in Ohio personally
directing the campaign, but his checks
can be sent just as well by mail.

EVERY town in the country, so fortunate to have a pottery within its boundaries, knows full well that prosperity is
here.

IT's true the weather is dry, but that
is no reason that the signs of Republican victory should, like all other signs,
fail.

BRYAN is making speeches in Kentucky, but the price per speech is one of
the secrets of the campaign. Kentucky
Democrats are pleading poverty.

BRYAN and Tillman are not in the Ohio campaign. Perhaps McLean is learning that dollars spent in paying for
the speeches of those gentlemen do not
make a paying investment.

SENATOR FORAKER will doubtless be
greeted by a great gathering of people
when he comes to the city. He is not alone one of America's most energetic
statesmen, but he is an orator whose arguments are as interesting as they are
instructive.

WHILE President McKinley is preparing his message to congress he should
not forget that a great many people are
earnestly hoping he will have something
vigorous to say concerning the policy of
of Spain toward the insurgents of Cuba.
The Republicans promised it, and the
people expect their representative to
carry it out.

A SURE DISTRICT.

There seems little cause for complaint
of hard times in any part of the Eighteenth district. Liverpool's potteries
have more orders than they can conveniently fill, while the iron works at Youngstown are employed day and night
with large forces of men. Canton and
Salem with their diversified industries
are feeling the influence of returning
prosperity, and Alliance, Wellsville
Lisbon and any number of smaller towns are working hard. Through the counties of Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark there is a hurry and hustle which means that the foes of prosperity, those
men who lead the party of calamity,
will waste any portion of their campaign fund that they might spend into
this district. Its intelligence will not allow it to support an old theory or clasp
a new one when it knows that separately
or united they mean disaster, idleness
and financial loss. Unless every sign fails, the district which was so ably
represented by the man who now stands
at the head of the government, will show
by its vote that it still upholds his splendid principles and endorses his administration.

THEY'LL BUILD HOMES

They Are Tired of Paying Out
Heavy Rent Bills.

THEY WANT THEIR OWN HOMES

They Have Agreed to Purchase Choice
Lots in the East End, and Will Erect
Neat Little Residences Thereon—Go Thou
and Do Likewise.

They have paid rent for long years,
and they have come to the conclusion
that they have been, in a measure, foolish
and unwise. They are honest men, and
not of that class which believes that "it is cheaper to move than to pay rent." They have been good tenants, and their
landlords will be sorry to part with them.
But they have determined to save money
in order to meet the requirements of old
age, when they will no longer be able to perform a full day's work. We will give their conversation, and let others
profit by it. Read carefully, ye mechanics and workmen of East Liverpool.

"Say, Jack, I suppose you have heard
of this sale of lots which is to take place
in the East End, where the Sebrings are
putting up a pottery."

"Yes, Tom, I've heard about it and
read about it, as the NEWS REVIEW
comes to my home every evening, and
the paper is speaking in very favorable
terms about the lots to be sold. Of course
the paper is paid well for saying such
nice things, as that is where they make their money. But, in this case, they can't say anything but good things, for
I've been over the ground and examined
it carefully and it's about the nicest plat
of ground that has been laid out for lots
in all this section of country. It's away
above high water mark and in splendid
condition for the erection of residences,
while the transportation facilities will
no doubt be first-class, as I understand that the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad company will establish a station in close proximity to the new pottery, while the street railway will no doubt make connection also, as there will be strong passenger traffic to and fro. Then,
again, the prices asked for lots are reasonable, and the privileges accorded purchasers are all that can be desired. I'm going to invest on the day of the sale,
and I'm going to have a choice lot, unless they run the premiums up to too
stiff a figure. I'm tired paying all my earnings out in rent, and I'm going to put up a neat but small house, and add
to it when I can afford to do so."

"Look here, Jack, old boy, if I didn't know you so well, I'd believe that you
had turned land agent and are engaged
in landing this plat of ground to the skies on a percentage basis. But I know
you, and I know the lots and the location you're talking about, and you can bet your bottom dollar that I'll be on deck on the 19th and make my little bid
for a good lot. I too am tired of paying heavy rentals, and I'm going to follow
out the same plan you have sketched
out. Let's go up together and see if we can't secure lots side by side. I know
you'll make a good neighbor, and I'll
try and behave myself when we move
into our natty little homes. Buildin'
castles in the air, hey Tom? But we'll get there, my boy, all the same. See
you later."

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I am with
you, to the letter, in your condemnation
of the non-enforcement of existing laws
and ordinances made to govern East Liverpool. My business compels me to be about the streets almost continually,
and sometimes, I may say frequently,
until a late hour at night, and I am able
to prove, in case of necessity, that the laws are shamefully abused, and some of the officials of the city make no attempt to suppress them. Why, sir, there are some officials whom I believe would
run away from a scene of trouble, especially when certain voters are engaged
therein, for fear they, the officers, might
lose a vote or votes, which they are assiduously cultivating. The "Tramp"
who wrote an article in your paper, not
long since, evidently knew what he was talking about, and hundreds of indignant voters will vouch for it that he told
plain truths; too plain, in fact, to many
aspirants for office.

But, Mr. Editor, we have one officer
on the force, to my certain knowledge,
who is doing his full duty against law-
breakers, illegal liquor selling, and like
offences, and he will be remembered at
the proper time by conservative citizens.
This officer has been turned down and
censured severely at headquarters for his faithful performance of his sworn duty, and he will testify to the truthfulness of this assertion at the time when it will do the most good; possibly at a time when a certain well known official,
who now longs for greater honors than
have been given him, will attempt to make a canvass for the berth he so much desires. He has had the opportunity given him, and has utterly failed in fulfilling the sacred promises made to
the voters of East Liverpool. He has been "weighed in the balance and found wanting." His absolute disregard of the solemn obligations he made, when
inducted in office, will fell him and defeat him, and the defeat will be a just
decision.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Occupied the Attention of the Association.

THE HOME MISSIONARY WORK

Was Discussed by a Great Many Ladies at the First U. P. Church—The First Session of Synod Will Be Held in the First Presbyterian Church Tonight.

The sixth annual meeting of the Ohio Synodical Sunday School association was opened last evening at the First Presbyterian church. The convention will continue through today, ending this afternoon, when the organization gives way to synod. The object of the association is to increase the interest in Sunday school work, and it seems almost needless to say that end was attained.

An elaborate program had been prepared, and so well were the arrangements made they were carried out to the letter, although the hour for opening had passed when the devotional exercises began. Mr. W. A. Endaly, of Cincinnati, presided, and an excellent address of welcome was delivered by Dr. John Lloyd Lee. Stuart V. Wright responded to this, and Rev. Dr. S. A. McKinley read an interesting paper on the Sabbath school in the Presbyterian church, reviewing its history and showing the steady advancement, particularly in America.

Miss Florence Everson followed with a splendid solo, and Rev. Sylvester F. Scovel, president of Wooster university, took up a "Plea For Catechizing," and in a scholarly manner argued from his standpoint. The gentleman spoke at some length, and when the paper was concluded the exercises for the evening were at an end.

Mr. Endaly announced the meetings for today, and the session was dismissed.

TUESDAY MORNING

Was Opened With a Well-Attended Meeting.

The second day of the convention began at 8:15 o'clock with a prayer meeting conducted by the Endeavorers. The meeting was well attended by members of the society and visitors.

The regular morning session was called to order at 9:30 by Dr. J. C. M. Floyd, who arrived last evening to preside today. The program began with devotional exercises, lasting 15 minutes. Doctor Floyd next addressed the assembly on "Home Department Work," and his remarks were of intense interest. He treated on the upbuilding of the membership and how it was to be accomplished, giving in connection a sketch of the growth of the Presbyterian Sunday schools. On questioning the pastors present whether they had established this department he brought out the fact that few had taken any steps in this direction, but he made its workings plain to them, and it is likely that all will establish this work in their schools. A number of pastors questioned the speaker on the new system, and expressed themselves as highly gratified with the plan.

Dr. W. A. Powell read a paper entitled "Normal Department Work," and explained this branch in detail. Mr. W. P. Bogardus spoke on "The shorter Catechism as a basis of teaching." A blackboard explanation of the above followed, the subject being "Justification, Adoption and Sanctification." Mr. Bogardus diagrammed the work and described a modern method of Sabbath school teaching. Questions and discussions on the subject took place after the blackboard analysis. Mr. Bogardus proved a magnetic speaker, and his work arrested the entire attention of his audience.

Rev. H. A. L. King was the last speaker on the morning program and had as his subject: "Some practical hints for house to house visitation." This also was followed by questions to the speaker, after which the announcements of the chair concluded the morning session.

Rev. T. S. Scott discussed "The home as a foundation for Sabbath school work," this afternoon. The association is still in session.

SESSIONS OF SYNOD.

They Will Begin This Evening With a Sermon.

The First Presbyterian church has been well prepared for the sessions of the Synod of Ohio which will open at 8 o'clock this evening.

All the seats have been removed from the lecture room, the curtains have been drawn, doors thrown open, and every preparation made for facilitating the work of the ministers. Tables have been spread about the room, while the class rooms have been fitted for use by committees. One is transformed into an office. On the wall hangs a telephone, while typewriters and material for correspondence are ready for use.

The decorations at once attract attention and excite admiration. Potted plants are placed where they will relieve the monotony of the scene, while a bunch of beautiful chrysanthemums decorate the communion table. Sparagus in festoons is seen everywhere, and palms add materially to the decorations. It presents a pretty picture, and most favorable has been the comment from the visitors.

A great many ministers and their wives arrived in the city today, and are being entertained by members of the First Presbyterian church and their friends. Among those who arrived this morning are: Rev. L. B. Campbell, Ada; Doctor Whan, Dayton; Rev. R. N. Donnellson, Wooster; Rev. W. E. Donnellson, Toledo; Dr. David R. Moore, Logan; Dr. W. A. Powell, Athens.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Columbus, is stated clerk of the synod, and the busiest man about the church. Doctor Watt, the retiring moderator, will deliver the sermon tonight. Much important business will be considered tomorrow and Thursday, but the matter of athletics at Wooster college will not be brought up. The ministers look upon that as having been settled last year.

The music is a feature of the evening meetings. Mr. Marshall has charge of the congregational singing, Miss Florence Everson is the soloist, and Miss Bessie Adams the organist. Tonight Miss Everson will sing, and a quartet will render "Abide With Me." The choir will also render an anthem.

THE LADIES

Conducted Their Meeting For Home Missions.

The Women's Home Missionary association held their meeting this afternoon in the First U. P. church. Mrs. J. A. Ewalt, of London, presided over the convention, which opened with a half-hour's devotional exercises, and "Loving Service," conducted by Mrs. Mary A. Stewart, of Steubenville. Mrs. J. L. Lee made the address of welcome and Mrs. Ewalt the response. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. S. D. Maxwell, of Cincinnati, and approved. An extensive report of the annual meeting at Winona, Ind., of the Women's Board of Missions was rendered by Mr. E. C. Higbee, of Cleveland. Reports also were heard of the executive committee, followed by musical selections. Miss M. E. Rodgers, of New York, addressed the meeting on "Our Land for Christ." Offerings were received, announcements made and the ladies adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, when they will meet in the United Presbyterian church again. This is the fifteenth annual meeting of the Home Missionary societies, of Presbyterian women and young people in the synod of Ohio. The meeting will be concluded with tomorrow afternoon's services.

The executive committee held a session this morning at 10 o'clock.

Among those in attendance from out of town are: Mrs. Ewalt, London; Mrs. Stewart, Steubenville; Mrs. Maxwell, Cincinnati; Mrs. Higbee, Cleveland; Miss Rodgers, New York City; Mrs. Gibson, South Charleston; Mrs. Elliott, Cleveland; Miss Alice Patterson, Glendale; Miss Elizabeth Hughes, Dayton; Mrs. Francis, Cincinnati; Mrs. Dean, Newark; Mrs. Closkey, Massillon; Mrs. March, Marysville; Miss Jackson, Augusta, Ga.; Miss White, Cleveland; Miss Lytle, Fostoria; Miss Workman, Neffs.

More Strangers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sturtevant, of Sharpsville, Pa., are today moving to the city, and will reside in Fourth street.

HAVE A GOOD THING

Local Men Will Locate In Cleveland.

MONEY IN A PATENT BRAKE

S. C. Whittenberger and James Gillespie Have Interested Men of Means In a Bicycle Attachment, and the Crown Manufacturing Co. Has Been Organized.

James Gillespie and S. C. Whittenberger, of this city, have been in Cleveland several days in the last month getting capitalists interested in their patent bicycle brake, and this week the Crown Manufacturing company, of Cleveland, was incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

The incorporators are J. L. Arthur, A. L. Austin, J. D. Gillespie, A. H. Leece, Martin W. Sanders, D. A. Stewart and R. R. Crawford. A meeting of the stockholders will be called next week to elect officers, and the company will proceed at once to begin the manufacture of bicycle sundries.

The principal article to be manufactured by them is an automatic brake invented by James and Martin Gillespie, of this city. The brake differs from any on the market, and is attached to the sprocket wheel, and acts as a brake on the chain by simply back pedaling. It has been examined by a number of wheel manufacturers, and is pronounced by them one of the finest. The gentlemen are at present working on another improvement in wheels which they will patent next week.

TOO BUSY

Are the People to Consider Matters Political.

J. E. Evans, the well known agent of the Protected Home circle, arrived in the city today, and spent some of the time telling his friends what a great campaign we are having. Mr. Evans has been in politics all his life, and says he never knew before when the average Buckeye was too busy to interest himself in a contest, but he is this time, and the result can be seen all over the state. Mr. Evans cannot understand why the Democrats expect to win not only in this election but in elections to come.

A DESPERATE TRAMP.

He Took an Officer's Revolver and Attempted to Kill Him.

Officer Moore, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg force, arrested a colored man who was riding on a freight, at Smith's Ferry, yesterday afternoon. The fellow promptly knocked the officer down, took away his revolver, and did his best to shoot him. Moore called for assistance from the train crew and the negro was captured. He was taken to Rochester. The officer has a black eye to remind him of the happening.

WHIPPED HIS WIFE.

But She Fortunately Had a Big Brother.

The larger half of a young couple who were married not long ago, went home drunk last night, and after quarreling with his wife, knocked her down. Her brother chanced to be in the house, and he immediately took the husband in hand, giving him a sound thrashing. A neighbor who heard the row wanted to call the police, but when he heard the particulars he decided that the husband got no more than his due, and there were no arrests.

A GAME OF BALL

Will Be Played at the Young Men's Christian Association.

An exhibition game of indoor baseball will be played in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association one week from next Thursday night. Ladies will be admitted, but children under 15 years of age will not be allowed in the hall. The game will be the first of the season, and will be played between picked nines.

WANTED—A BOY.

A bright, active boy, over 14 years old, who is willing to work, can obtain a good position by applying at the News Review Wednesday morning, between 8 and 9 o'clock.

To Settle a Question.

Manager Rose, of the Monarchs, has arranged a series of three games with the Wellsville team to settle the long disputed question of supremacy on the local gridiron. The first contest will take place next Saturday afternoon at Wellsville, and the other games will be arranged later. East Liverpool will place her strongest team in the field, and the boys will practice hard every afternoon until the game.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—John Shrader was in Pittsburg today.

—A. W. Scott was a Lisbon visitor today.

—W. A. Weaver spent the day in Salsville on business.

—Colonel and Mrs. Jno. N. Taylor are home from Washington.

—Elmer Eagan, of Walnut street, is visiting friends in Cleveland.

—Miss Georgia Dawson, of Ohioville, is the guest of Miss Mayme Simms.

—C. A. Ferguson, of Broadway, is visiting friends in New Matamoras.

—Miss Helen Fisher, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday the guest of relatives in this city.

—Mrs. Ethel Wilke, of Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCain, East End.

—Miss Mabel Brownley, of Steubenville, is the guest of Councilman Olnhausen and wife.

—Word was received this morning that Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Larkins will be home Saturday.

—R. G. Ramsey and wife and Samuel George and wife, of Scroggsfield, are visiting friends here.

CHELSEA TO START.

Stockholders Are Preparing For a Steady Run.

It is stated here today that the Pittsburg capitalists who hold a controlling interest in the Chelsea, at Cumberland, will soon place the plant in operation.

They have found that the plant can make money now, while a few years ago it could do nothing in that line. It is believed that work will be started in a short time. Less than $500 would be required to make repairs.

THIS WEEK

Quarters Will Likely Be Selected For the Citizens' National.

The committee having in charge the selection of a home for the Citizens' National bank will meet some time this week and reach a conclusion. They want the room now occupied by the Pottery Protective association in the Surles building, and have made the owner a proposition for a short term lease. Whether it will be accepted is not yet known.

THE OHIO IS VERY LOW

The Water Dropped Two Inches Since Yesterday.

FERRY BOAT CANNOT CROSS

It Made a Trip to Virginia, But No Landing Could Be Made on This Side—Rivermen Do Not Remember Such a Condition.

If the river continues to fall it will not be long until the boundary separating this part of Ohio from West Virginia will have disappeared.

The water is now lower than it has been any time this season, and old rivermen say they cannot remember when there was so little water between the banks. Yesterday the register was 12 inches in the channel, and today it has dropped to 10. The ferryboat Dispatch attempted to do business yesterday, but met with obstacles. It made one trip to the Virginia shore, but could not get within six feet of the Ohio side when it returned. Even though the boat could run there would be little business, for teams are crossing just below the island without trouble. Rivermen have given up predicting when the rise will come.

Attended a Meeting.

Mrs. W. A. Rhodes and Mrs. C. H. Burkett left this morning for Ada, O., where they will attend the sessions of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. They represent the local lodge. Mrs. R. E. Hill accompanied the ladies, being entitled to a seat in the grand lodge as a past grand officer.

A Small Wreck.

Another small wreck occurred yesterday on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, near Lamaville. Freight train 120 was rounding a sharp curve at that point and crashed into another freight. Several cars were damaged, and the caboose is a complete wreck.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Occupied the Attention of the Association.

THE HOME MISSIONARY WORK

Was Discussed by a Great Many Ladies at the First U. P. Church—The First Session of Synod Will Be Held In the First Presbyterian Church Tonight.

The sixth annual meeting of the Ohio Synodical Sunday School association was opened last evening at the First Presbyterian church. The convention will continue through today, ending this afternoon, when the organization gives way to synod. The object of the association is to increase the interest in Sunday school work, and it seems almost needless to say that end was attained.

An elaborate program had been prepared, and so well were the arrangements made they were carried out to the letter, although the hour for opening had passed when the devotional exercises began. Mr. W. A. Eudaly, of Cincinnati, presided, and an excellent address of welcome was delivered by Dr. John Lloyd Lee. Stuart V. Wright responded to this, and Rev. Dr. S. A. McKinley read an interesting paper on the Sabbath school in the Presbyterian church, reviewing its history and showing the steady advancement, particularly in America.

Miss Florence Everson followed with a splendid solo, and Rev. Sylvester F. Scovel, president of Wooster university, took up a "Plea For Catechizing," and in a scholarly manner argued from his standpoint. The gentleman spoke at some length, and when the paper was concluded the exercises for the evening were at an end.

Mr. Eudaly announced the meetings for today, and the session was dismissed.

TUESDAY MORNING

Was Opened With a Well-Attended Meeting.

The second day of the convention began at 6:15 o'clock with a prayer meeting conducted by the Endeavorers. The meeting was well attended by members of the society and visitors.

The regular morning session was called to order at 9:30 by Dr. J. C. M. Floyd, who arrived last evening to preside today. The program began with devotional exercises, lasting 15 minutes. Doctor Floyd next addressed the assembly on "Home Department Work," and his remarks were of intense interest. He treated on the upbuilding of the membership and how it was to be accomplished, giving in connection a sketch of the growth of the Presbyterian Sunday schools. On questioning the pastors present whether they had established this department he brought out the fact that few had taken any steps in this direction, but he made its workings plain to them, and it is likely that all will establish this work in their schools. A number of pastors questioned the speaker on the new system, and expressed themselves as highly gratified with the plan.

Dr. W. A. Powell read a paper entitled "Normal Department Work," and explained this branch in detail. Mr. W. P. Bogardus spoke on "The shorter Catechism as a basis of teaching." A blackboard explanation of the above followed, the subject being "Justification, Adoption and Sanctification." Mr. Bogardus diagramed the work and described a modern method of Sabbath school teaching. Questions and discussions on the subject took place after the blackboard analysis. Mr. Bogardus proved a magnetic speaker, and his work arrested the entire attention of his audience.

Rev. H. A. L. King was the last speaker on the morning program and had as his subject: "Some practical hints for house to house visitation." This also was followed by questions to the speaker, after which the announcements of the chair concluded the morning session.

Rev. T. S. Scott discussed "The home as a foundation for Sabbath school work," this afternoon. The association is still in session.

SESSIONS OF SYNOD.

They Will Begin This Evening With a Sermon.

The First Presbyterian church has been well prepared for the sessions of the Synod of Ohio which will open at 8 o'clock this evening.

All the seats have been removed from the lecture room, the curtains have been drawn, doors thrown open, and every preparation made for facilitating the work of the ministers. Tables have been spread about the room, while the class rooms have been fitted for use by committees. One is transformed into an office. On the wall hangs a telephone, while typewriters and material for correspondence are ready for use.

The decorations at once attract attention and excite admiration. Potted plants are placed where they will relieve the monotony of the scene, while a bunch of beautiful chrysanthemums decorate the communion table. Sparagus in festoons is seen everywhere, and palms add materially to the decorations. It presents a pretty picture, and most favorable has been the comment from the visitors.

A great many ministers and their wives arrived in the city today, and are being entertained by members of the First Presbyterian church and their friends. Among those who arrived this morning are: Rev. L. B. Campbell, Ada; Doctor Whan, Dayton; Rev. R. N. Donnellson, Wooster; Rev. W. E. Donnellson, Toledo; Dr. David R. Moore, Logan; Dr. W. A. Powell, Athens.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Columbus, is stated clerk of the synod, and the busiest man about the church. Doctor Watt, the retiring moderator, will deliver the sermon tonight. Much important business will be considered tomorrow and Thursday, but the matter of athletics at Wooster college will not be brought up. The ministers look upon that as having been settled last year.

The music is a feature of the evening meetings. Mr. Marshall has charge of the congregational singing, Miss Florence Everson is the soloist, and Miss Bessie Adams the organist. Tonight Miss Everson will sing, and a quartet will render "Abide With Me." The choir will also render an anthem.

Conducted Their Meeting For Home Missions.

The Women's Home Missionary association held their meeting this afternoon in the First U. P. church. Mrs. J. A. Ewalt, of London, presided over the convention, which opened with a half-hour's devotional exercises, and "Loving Service," conducted by Mrs. Mary A. Stewart, of Steubenville. Mrs. J. L. Lee made the address of welcome and Mrs. Ewalt the response. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. S. D. Maxwell, of Cincinnati, and approved. An extensive report of the annual meeting at Winona, Ind., of the Women's Board of Missions was rendered by Mr. E. C. Higbee, of Cleveland. Reports also were heard of the executive committee, followed by musical selections. Miss M. E. Rodgers, of New York, addressed the meeting on "Our Land for Christ." Offerings were received, announcements made and the ladies adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, when they will meet in the United Presbyterian church again. This is the fifteenth annual meeting of the Home Missionary societies, of Presbyterian women and young people in the synod of Ohio. The meeting will be concluded with tomorrow afternoon's services.

The executive committee held a session this morning at 10 o'clock.

Among those in attendance from out of town are: Mrs. Ewalt, London; Mrs. Stewart, Steubenville; Mrs. Maxwell, Cincinnati; Mrs. Higbee, Cleveland; Miss Rodgers, New York City; Mrs. Gibson, South Charleston; Mrs. Elliott, Cleveland; Miss Alice Patterson, Glendale; Miss Elizabeth Hughes, Dayton; Mrs. Francis, Cincinnati; Mrs. Dean, Newark; Mrs. Closkey, Massillon; Mrs. March, Marysville; Miss Jackson, Augusta, Ga.; Miss White, Cleveland; Miss Lytle, Fostoria; Miss Workman, Neffs.

More Strangers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sturtevant, of Sharpsville, Pa., are today moving to the city, and will reside in Fourth street.

HAVE A GOOD THING

Local Men Will Locate In Cleveland.

MONEY IN A PATENT BRAKE

S. C. Whittenberger and James Gillespie Have Interested Men of Means In a Bicycle Attachment, and the Crown Manufacturing Co. Has Been Organized.

James Gillespie and S. C. Whittenberger, of this city, have been in Cleveland several days in the last month getting capitalists interested in their patent bicycle brake, and this week the Crown Manufacturing company, of Cleveland, was incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

The incorporators are J. L. Arthur, A. L. Austin, J. D. Gillespie, A. H. Leece, Martin W. Sanders, D. A. Stewart and R. R. Crawford. A meeting of the stockholders will be called next week to elect officers, and the company will proceed at once to begin the manufacture of bicycle sundries.

The principal article to be manufactured by them is an automatic brake invented by James and Martin Gillespie, of this city. The brake differs from any on the market, and is attached to the sprocket wheel, and acts as a brake on the chain by simply back pedaling. It has been examined by a number of wheel manufacturers, and is pronounced by them one of the finest. The gentlemen are at present working on another improvement in wheels which they will patent next week.

TOO BUSY

Are the People to Consider Matters Political.

J. E. Evans, the well known agent of the Protected Home circle, arrived in the city today, and spent some of the time telling his friends what a great campaign we are having. Mr. Evans has been in politics all his life, and says he never knew before when the average Buckeye was too busy to interest himself in a contest, but he is this time, and the result can be seen all over the state. Mr. Evans cannot understand why the Democrats expect to win not only in this election but in elections to come.

A DESPERATE TRAMP.

He Took an Officer's Revolver and Attempted to Kill Him.

Officer Moore, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg force, arrested a colored man who was riding on a freight, at Smith's Ferry, yesterday afternoon. The fellow promptly knocked the officer down, took away his revolver, and did his best to shoot him. Moore called for assistance from the train crew and the negro was captured. He was taken to Rochester. The officer has a black eye to remind him of the happening.

WHIPPED HIS WIFE.

But She Fortunately Had a Big Brother.

The larger half of a young couple who were married not long ago, went home drunk last night, and after quarreling with his wife, knocked her down. Her brother chanced to be in the house, and he immediately took the husband in hand, giving him a sound thrashing. A neighbor who heard the row wanted to call the police, but when he heard the particulars he decided that the husband got no more than his due, and there were no arrests.

A GAME OF BALL

Will Be Played at the Young Men's Christian Association.

An exhibition game of indoor baseball will be played in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association one week from next Thursday night. Ladies will be admitted, but children under 15 years of age will not be allowed in the hall. The game will be the first of the season, and will be played between picked nines.

WANTED—A BOY.

A bright, active boy, over 14 years old, who is willing to work, can obtain a good position by applying at the News Review Wednesday morning, between 8 and 9 o'clock.

To Settle a Question.

Manager Rose, of the Monarchs, has arranged a series of three games with the Wellsville team to settle the long disputed question of supremacy on the local gridiron. The first contest will take place next Saturday afternoon at Wellsville, and the other games will be arranged later. East Liverpool will place her strongest team in the field, and the boys will practice hard every afternoon until the game.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—John Shrader was in Pittsburg today.

—A. W. Scott was a Lisbon visitor today.

—W. A. Weaver spent the day in Salineville on business.

—Colonel and Mrs. Jno. N. Taylor are home from Washington.

—Elmer Eagan, of Walnut street, is visiting friends in Cleveland.

—Miss Georgia Dawson, of Ohioville, is the guest of Miss Mayme Simms.

—C. A. Ferguson, of Broadway, is visiting friends in New Matamoras.

—Miss Helen Fisher, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday the guest of relatives in this city.

—Mrs. Ethel Wilke, of Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCain, East End.

—Miss Mabel Brownley, of Steubenville, is the guest of Councilman Olmhausen and wife.

—Word was received this morning that Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Larkins will be home Saturday.

—R. G. Ramsey and wife and Samuel George and wife, of Scroggsfield, are visiting friends here.

CHELSEA TO START.

Stockholders Are Preparing For a Steady Run.

It is stated here today that the Pittsburg capitalists who hold a controlling interest in the Chelsia, at Cumberland, will soon place the plant in operation.

They have found that the plant can make money now, while a few years ago it could do nothing in that line. It is believed that work will be started in a short time. Less than $500 would be required to make repairs.

THIS WEEK

Quarters Will Likely Be Selected For the Citizens' National.

The committee having in charge the selection of a home for the Citizens' National bank will meet some time this week and reach a conclusion. They want the room now occupied by the Pottery Protective association in the Surles building, and have made the owner a proposition for a short term lease. Whether it will be accepted is not yet known.

THE OHIO IS VERY LOW

The Water Dropped Two Inches Since Yesterday.

FERRY BOAT CANNOT CROSS

It Made a Trip to Virginia, But No Landing Could Be Made on This Side—Rivermen Do Not Remember Such a Condition.

If the river continues to fall it will not be long until the boundary separating this part of Ohio from West Virginia will have disappeared.

The water is now lower than it has been any time this season, and old rivermen say they cannot remember when there was so little water between the banks. Yesterday the register was 12 inches in the channel, and today it has dropped to 10. The ferryboat Dispatch attempted to do business yesterday, but met with obstacles. It made one trip to the Virginia shore, but could not get within six feet of the Ohio side when it returned. Even though the boat could run there would be little business, for teams are crossing just below the island without trouble. Rivermen have given up predicting when the rise will come.

Attended a Meeting.

Mrs. W. A. Rhodes and Mrs. C. H. Burkett left this morning for Ada, O., where they will attend the sessions of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. They represent the local lodge. Mrs. R. E. Hill accompanied the ladies, being entitled to a seat in the grand lodge as a past grand officer.

A Small Wreck.

Another small wreck occurred yesterday on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, near Lamaville. Freight train 120 was rounding a sharp curve at that point and crashed into another freight. Several cars were damaged, and the caboose is a complete wreck.

Present.

The meeting of claims committee last evening was one of the most quiet in the history of the body, and the only bill to be laid over was that of J. D. West for $26, the funeral expenses of Alice Jane Robison. It was referred to the solicitor. The following bills were ordered paid:

M. Brozsky, $4.73; H. C. Walter, $11.50; street commissioner, $238.75; J. L. Taylor, $13.00; salary of mayor, chief and police force, and feeding prisoners, 144 meals, $340.25; Isaac Shamp, $28.88; Eagle Hardware company, $4.80; board of health, $50.00; Diamond Hardware company, $5.30; J. N. Hanley, $53.15; Light company, $566.67; J. C. Anderson, $12; Standard livery, $58.24; Union Planing mill, $19.36; Robert Hall, $7.40; NEWS REVIEW, $16.04; Crisis, $25.38; Tribune, $20.75; Knowles, Taylor & Anderson, $2.34; salary of fire department and sundries, $466.53; Solicitor Grosshans, $169.80; Mike King, $10; Engineer George, $139.95; Councilmen Peach and Olnhausen, a trip to Lisbon, $15.

After the meeting had adjourned Engineer George called attention to the fact that council would have to move the stable owned by Howard from Eighth street, and the attention of the solicitor was called to the matter. He also spoke in regard to the sewerage of Jethro street, at the ball ground, and it will be discussed at the meeting of council this evening.

GREAT GALL.

And They Dare Call Such a Misprint "Artistic."

A would-be rival of the NEWS REVIEW claims to run a job office and turn out artistic work. They lately turned out an absolute monstrosity from their so-called job department, and their attempt has made them the laughing stock of all typos and pressmen worthy of the name. The advertisements have the appearance of having been set up by an apprentice of three months' experience; the make up is about on a par with the ads., and the press work on the half-tones is simply abominable, and unworthy of anyone calling himself a pressman; that is, if he had a REAL press upon which to operate, and not an old-fashioned Franklin, run by "armstrong" power. And yet the sawbucks who turned out the misprint, from their misfit office, have the infinite gall to declare this blunder of blunders on "artistic piece of job work," and make the boast, in blood red ink, in the pages of the misprint in question, that they do not turn out old foggy productions, spelling the word thus: "Foggy." Their brains (?) must have been BEFOGGED when they wrote and while they worked on the botch. The thing should have been left on the hands of the blunderers who claim to be job printers. Selah.

Our New Store Will Open

Wednesday, October 13,

At 7 O'CLOCK, P. M.

Manley's Military Band will be present to enliven the occasion.

The LEADER will be a millinery, cloak, notion, hosiery, underwear and furnishing goods store. It will also be a cash and money-back store, and because of these things it will be the popular store. There will be no old foggyism about The Leader, no old and time worn business methods. There will be no shop worn goods. The stock will be the best selected millinery, cloaks, domestics, underwear, hosiery and furnishings ever seen in East Liverpool. Everything will be new, fresh and fashionable. All goods are always marked in plain figures, and polite and attentive clerks will ever be in attendance.

At THE LEADER you will find some startling low prices, but this you have a right to expect, because we are doing business on a cash basis, a money-back if you want it basis. Our method of doing business will not be an experiment. It has been tried in hundreds of towns, and the most marked success has attended its introduction. The Leader will soon be one of the established institutions of East Liverpool.

Samler Bros., the proprietors of this enterprising establishment, extend to all a hearty and cordial invitation to attend the opening of The Leader Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, at 7 o'clock. SALEM IS REGRETTING

Because It Did Not Raise the Pottery Bonus.

SOME PEOPLE STILL HOPEFUL

They Think the Matter Can Be Held Until the Remaining $5,000 Has Been Collected—The Committee Would Not Take the Responsibility.

Salem has not altogether given up the idea of having a pottery, but it feels somewhat sore because the bonus of $30,000 was not raised by last Saturday night. The Salem papers make the following statement:

"When last Saturday night arrived and the proposition was not accepted, Mr. Hall deemed it better to decline the proposition to extend the time for raising the bonus, as far as he was individually concerned. The other gentlemen were, and are, willing to extend the time, and negotiations are still pending looking to the bringing of the improvement to Salem, the outcome of which cannot at the present time be determined.

"It is to be regretted that we were not in position to accept the proposition, already published last Saturday, but as the required amount of money had not been raised the committee having the matter in charge could not, of course, assume the responsibility. Some of the members of the committee, when seen today, were quite hopeful and confident that with an extension of time the required amount can be easily raised, in addition to the $15,000 already in the hands of the committee."

SOME MONEY.

Treasurer Herbert Has a Little on Hand.

The report of City Treasurer Herbert shows the following balances: Street, $734.14; wharf, $39.59; fire, $136.59; police, $977.08; light, $1,371.94; sinking, $6,818.73; interest, $2,307.80; sanitary, $800.80; sewer, $1,090.83; bridge, $862.19. The general fund is overdrawn $987.61.

Likes Liverpool Ware.

It is said that a local manufacturer was pleased beyond measure not long ago when he received an order from a large firm in an eastern city. The letter stated that the company's ware had improved so that the buyer believed this was only the first of many orders. The Liverpool man has been trying to sell them crockery for 10 years.

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it so peculiarly interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made, now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled

"Klondyke Nuggets"

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

which places the facts in the possession of our readers. REMEMBER, that our office is the sole distributing point for this locality, having closed exclusive arrangements with Mr. Ladue's publishers.

The cover of the work is beautifully printed in red and gold, the gold showing one of the author's nuggets as nearly as it is possible to reproduce it on paper.

It is easy to secure a copy of "KLONDYKE NUGGETS." Cut out the Coupon and follow instructions.

SALEM IS REGRETTING

Because It Did Not Raise the Pottery Bonus.

SOME PEOPLE STILL HOPEFUL

They Think the Matter Can Be Held Until the Remaining $5,000 Has Been Collected—The Committee Would Not Take the Responsibility.

Salem has not altogether given up the idea of having a pottery, but it feels somewhat sore because the bonus of $30,000 was not raised by last Saturday night. The Salem papers make the following statement:

"When last Saturday night arrived and the proposition was not accepted, Mr. Hall deemed it better to decline the proposition to extend the time for raising the bonus, as far as he was individually concerned. The other gentlemen were, and are, willing to extend the time, and negotiations are still pending looking to the bringing of the improvement to Salem, the outcome of which cannot at the present time be determined.

"It is to be regretted that we were not in position to accept the proposition, already published last Saturday, but as the required amount of money had not been raised the committee having the matter in charge could not, of course, assume the responsibility. Some of the members of the committee, when seen today, were quite hopeful and confident that with an extension of time the required amount can be easily raised, in addition to the $15,000 already in the hands of the committee."

SOME MONEY.

Treasurer Herbert Has a Little on Hand.

The report of City Treasurer Herbert shows the following balances: Street, $734.14; wharf, $39.59; fire, $136.59; police, $977.08; light, $1,371.94; sinking, $6,818.73; interest, $2,307.80; sanitary, $800.80; sewer, $1,090.83; bridge, $862.19. The general fund is overdrawn $987.61.

Likes Liverpool Ware.

It is said that a local manufacturer was pleased beyond measure not long ago when he received an order from a large firm in an eastern city. The letter stated that the company's ware had improved so that the buyer believed this was only the first of many orders. The Liverpool man has been trying to sell them crockery for 10 years.

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS.

Merchants and business men must have advertisements in this office on the evening previous to insertion in this paper. This rule is imperative, and is an absolute necessity resulting in good to paper and patron.

The largest bonafide "paid" general circulation of any daily published in East Liverpool. Advertisers will make note.
HARRY PALMER,
Manager.

"ARTISTIC (?)"

Dedicated to the Misfit Who Misapplied the Word.

"Artistic." What does the fellow mean,
Such an artists' (?) work was ne'er before seen.
Rules misplaced, lines out of gee
And make up as bad as bad can be;
While the press work—oh! my, their head is not level,
It must have been done by their very last "devil."
And the half tones—oh! my, it requires awful face
For a pressman to father such an awful disgrace.
Just say, my dear fellow, when you gaze at your work:
"I must have been drunk—yes, drunk as a Turk."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Council will meet in regular session this evening.

Mrs. Lyons, wife of Constable Lyons, of Grant street, is very ill.

Mrs. H. L. Simms is confined to her room with an attack of asthma.

Mrs. Anna Eckler is improving after a severe attack of malarial fever.

J. J. McCormick, of Bellaire, was in the city yesterday purchasing ware.

The street force yesterday afternoon filled in the lot at city hall, and it is now ready to be paved.

Holland Lewis, the lad who was badly scalded Sunday at his home in Fifth street, was somewhat improved today.

No change in the ferry boat, Dispatch, was made yesterday. The deal is still on, but how soon a sale will be made is not known.

Miss Nellie Smithson and Miss Bertha Atkinson, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Quick for several days, will leave for Wheeling tomorrow.

Janitor Strain has been released from the coup. He held the job of janitor for 18 days, and worked out a fine of over seven dollars.

Two dressmakers from Pittsburg are about to start business in this city. Their household effects arrived this morning on the early eastern local.

Mrs. J. N. Rose, wife of Squire Rose, was brought to her home from Fairview this morning. She was at the home of her daughter, and had been seriously ill for several weeks.

The supplies ordered at the last meeting of the board of education will not arrive in the city until next week. Professor Rayman is making arrangements for their immediate use.

Van Cleve, the famous football player, has organized a scrappy eleven at Sewickley, and declares that they will achieve a reputation by defeating East Liverpool if a game here can be secured.

A lady bicyclist, while riding along Sixth street near the Diamond, ran into and knocked down an elderly lady who was awaiting a westbound car. The wheel woman dismounted and assisted the lady to her feet. She escaped injury.

Workmen are still about city hall improving the place, and today the paper hangers commenced work. The work of painting the exterior of the building has been completed, and it is only the matter of a short time until the entire job will be done.

A pair of rabbits, the property of the son of Sylvester Cripps, of Jackson street, were stolen from the yard last Saturday. The person who took them is known, and unless returned within a few days information will be made, and the person arrested.

Charles Thomas and Charles Kinney have perfected an invention and applied for a patent which will no doubt make them famous. It is a "resting machine." The idea consists of a reclining chair, with book holder, cigar lighter, fan and fly chaser attachments.

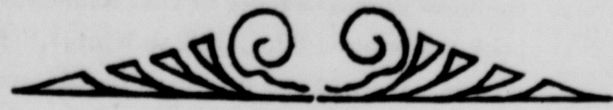

Father Smythe, of this city, left this morning for Cleveland to attend the golden jubilee of the diocese of this district. The celebration will last three days, and will be observed tomorrow night with a parade, in which 10,000 marchers will participate.
